ITINERARY

DAY ONE: HAVANA

There's so much life in Havana, and yet this bustling city never feels overwhelming. The only difficult thing about the city is knowing where to start exploring. The best way for those on our 10 day Cuba group tour to get started is with a pair of comfortable walking shoes. The entire city is fascinating, but fortunately many of the main points of interest are within a fairly compact area. Take a leisurely stroll through Havana's Old Town, with pauses for coffee (and Cuban coffee is amongst the best in the world), or for a magical mojito. The architecture of this part of the city is an attraction in itself. The first day of our 10 day Cuba group tours is the perfect way to ease yourself into Cuban life. You can even join your guide and fellow tour group members for dinner if you arrive in time.

Please note that the first day of the tour is a joining day with no formal activities planned. We do organise your accommodation for this evening and an optional dinner with your guide and group.

DAY TWO: CIENFUEGOS

We'll show you Playa Girón, which is otherwise known as the Bay of Pigs. This was the site of the infamous failed invasion of Cuba. Its brutal history is nowhere to be seen, and it's now an area of profound natural beauty. You'll want to dive straight into that beautiful ocean, and don't worry – there will be time.

While most of Cuba was settled by the Spanish, it was actually the French who made Cienfuegos into the city it is today. French migrants flocked to the area in the 1800's and their architectural influence on the city is obvious. On some streets you might think you're walking through Paris (although with infinitely better weather). At the entrance to the harbour you'll see the Castillo de Jagua, an ancient fort that allowed the city to withstand the pirate attacks that were once common in Cuba. Many buildings in the town have been given UNESCO world heritage status, and you might think you've never seen such a beautiful town... until we show you some other places.

A harbour city by location, the 'Pearl of the Caribbean' has seduced Cuban travellers for years due to its elegance and beauty. Explore the wide streets and promenades or enjoy a walk by the Malecon, the longest promenade on the island. "Cienfuegos is the city I like the best", wrote Beni More, one of Cubas most important musicians in the first half of the 20th century.

DAY THREE AND FOUR: TRINIDAD

While Che Guevara is synonymous with Cuba, his final days were actually spent in Bolivia. Cuba felt he needed a hero's burial and memorial, and this is located in Santa Clara, to where his body was returned. Our 10 day Cuba group tours will take you to this remarkable spot near Trinidad. It was in Santa Clara that Guevara and his rebels successfully derailed a military train carrying weapons and ammunition to be used against Fidel Castro. This act was credited with winning the revolution.

After Santa Clara we'll take you to remarkable Trinidad. Founded in 1514, the central parts of the city have been lovingly maintained, and you might wonder if you've been transported back in time. Many buildings are painted in sensational shades of colour, making Trinidad a true treat for the eyes. Trinidad was once the heart of Cuba's sugar industry (and a lot of sugar cane is still processed here). You simply have to take a visit to the sugar district, where many of the old mills can be found. For a fairly small city, there's an amazing amount of nightlife as well.

Take the opportunity to visit a local waterfall, historic sugar mill or one of Cuba's best beaches – Playa Ancon. An evening at one of Trinidad's effervescent music venues is a must!

DAY FIVE AND SIX: VINALES

Viñales is reasonably close to Havana, and has been popular with visitors for generations. In the heart of the Pinar del Rio valley, most of Cuba's tobacco production takes place in and around Viñales. This is the place to see where those world famous cigars come from, and to get some for yourself.

The geography in the area is stunning, and the town is ringed by stark mogotes – small hills with sheer rock faces. All of our Cuba group tours offer you the chance to take salsa lessons, and Viñales is the best place to do this.

The nightlife is lively, but not as crowded as larger cities – just in case you don't want to have an audience!

DAY SEVEN: HAVANA

We'll welcome you back to heavenly Havana for the last days of your tour. Your guides will be able to tell you about some amazing places to see that you might not have considered. On the afternoon of Day 7, you will take a tour of the city by classic car.

There are currently an estimated 60,000 pre-1960 American cars hurtling through Cuba today and before the embargo there were at least 150,000. Buicks, Chevys, and countless other cool-finned cruisers rumble down the crumbling streets of Havana, many abandoned by their American owners when they fled in 1959 and kept going by Cuban ingenuity. This iconic mode of transport is the perfect way to see wider Havana and a very different side of the city. Here you will be chauffeured around some of the most famous areas of Havana including New Havana, Old Havana, the affluent neighbourhood of Miramar and the famous cemetery of Colon.

DAY EIGHT: WALKING TOUR OF OLD HAVANA AND CALLEJON DE HAMMEL

The best place to start any Havana experience is in the Old City. Havana's Old City is one of the best preserved and was designated a World Heritage Site in 1982. The streets are lined with colonial architecture, 16th century fortresses and countless churches. After breakfast your local guide will meet you at 9am at your hotel and take you on a walking tour of Old Havana and you will visit La Catedral San Cristobal de la Habana, described by the novelist Alejo Carpentier as 'music set in stone'. You will also visit famous landmarks such as Palacio de los Marqueses de Aguas Claras (now a restaurant) and the Plaza de Armas, complete with a statue of Manuel de Cespedes, one of the leaders of the independence movement. There are plenty of good museums to visit on the walking tour including Museo de la Revolucion and the Museo Nacional de Bellas Artes.

Your guide will also give you the option to visit Saint Francis of Assisi Square, Arms Square, the Old Square and Cathedral Square.

On the walking tour you will experience a panoramic tour through the "Malecón", the Revolution Square, Central Park, Opera House, Capitol building, former Bacardi Building and Museum of the Revolution, former Presidential Palace with plenty of opportunities for photos. You will also have the opportunity to have lunch at an authentic family-run Cuban restaurant (Paladar).

In the afternoon we recommend visiting Callejon de Hammel in central Havana. Callejon de Hammel is where the Cuban artist fraternity congregate, and is a wonderful place to experience day-to-day Cuban life. Located in central Havana, the alley is brightly decorated in Cuban sculptures, art and paintings. You might also be able to catch a glimpse of a dance exhibition or meet Lazaro Salsita, who opens his home to teach neighbourhood children the art of papier-mâché. Make sure you check out Local artist Salvador González Escalona's neighbourhood makeover.

DAY NINE AND TEN: CIGAR FACTORY AND RUM MUSEUM

When anyone mentions Cuba two of the first things that come to mind are Cigars and Rum cocktails, immortalized by Hemingway.

Cuba has a long history of producing the world's best cigars and rum, and today you will be able to see for yourself how both of these famous exports are produced and learn all about their history and importance to Cuba's economy.

Today you can visit the Havana Rum Museum, housed in a converted old Palace where you can see the entire production process for this valuable export. Of course you will have the chance to taste some good rum in the Havana Club and also buy some to take home with you.

The next stop might be the Hotel Conde de Villanueva, an attractively restored 18th century mansion in the historic centre of the city. The hotel has one of the most popular cigar shops in town, and many people have personal humidors here to store their precious cigars. Here you will meet a "torcedor" or cigar roller, who will answer all your questions while you watch him go about his special craft. At the end of the demonstration you can do a cigar and coffee tasting, and buy some of the freshly-rolled cigars.

From here you will go to visit el Floridita, one of Hemingway's favourite bars to sample a genuine Cuban daiquiri before moving on to the Partagas Cigar Factory where the mystique behind cigar making will be revealed, and you will find out why Cuban cigars are so revered. Even non-smokers and teetotallers will enjoy the tour and get a deeper understanding of the history and culture of this fascinating city.

Please note that Day Ten is the departure day with no activities planned, meaning you are free to depart at any time.

IS THIS TOUR FOR ME?

Our group tours are perfect for those who want the freedom and flexibility to travel at their own pace, along with the security, camaraderie and cultural insight that comes from travelling with a local English-speaking guide and small group.

A Casa Particular is a Cuban Homestay or B&B. Staying in a Casa Particular is a brilliant way of immersing yourself in the life and culture of fascinating Cuba. When you choose a Casa Particular for your accommodation, you will meet the local people on a one-to-one basis and get a rare glimpse into the everyday life of ordinary people in Cuba. In addition, your host or hostess will be able to advise you on all things Cuban – the best restaurants, the best music and Salsa venues and any seasonal attractions that are only known to the locals!

WHAT IS A CASA PARTICULAR?

Casa Particular (or Casa Particulares in the plural form) is Spanish for 'private home'. In 1997 the Cuban government allowed local people to rent out their properties to visitors for the first time; prior to this all accommodation on the island was owned by the government, and this is why these Cuban-styled B&B's or rental apartments are called Casa Particulares to distinguish them as privately run establishments.

Owners of a Casa Particular have to pay an annual per-room tax to the government and are entitled to "advertise" their establishment by placing a small sign on the door – two blue triangles – "roofs" - against a white background. Most of the owners/operators are fiercely proud of their businesses and really strive to give holiday makers a brilliant and authentic Cuban home-stay experience.

ITINERARY

DAY ONE: HAVANA

Known as the capital of fun during the 40's and 50's, this spellbinding city immediately captures the curiosity of her many visitors. But where do you start? We recommend those booked on our 15 Day Cuba Group Tour put on your walking shoes and take in Havana's rich history, grand monuments, world famous cigars and scrumptious cocktails. You can easily get lost in Havana Vieja (old Havana), the old city of cobble stoned alleyways and colonial buildings, ancient squares and noted churches. The perfect day to get your bearings and meet your guide and group for an optional evening meal.

Please note that the first day of the tour is a joining day with no formal activities planned. We do organise your accommodation for this evening and an optional dinner with your guide and group.

DAY TWO: CIENFUEGOS

Stop off at Playa Girón/ Bay of Pigs, long associated with the USA's first military failure in Latin America. The natural beauty of this area is stunning, with cave systems, coral formations and an abundance of sea life making it a must for snorkelers, divers and ocean lovers alike.

If Cuba had a Paris then it would probably be Cienfuegos, which stands out for its rich French-influenced architecture. A harbour city by location, the 'Pearl of the Caribbean' has seduced Cuban travellers for years due to its elegance and beauty. Founded in 1819 by Don Luis de Clouet, Cienfuegos luckily managed to remain free of pirate attacks, allowing this popular city to prosper. Explore the wide streets and promenades or enjoy a walk by the Malecon, the longest promenade on the island. "Cienfuegos is the city I like the best", wrote Beni More, one of Cuba's most important musicians in the first half of the 20th century. Check it out for yourself and see what you think.

DAY THREE, FOUR AND FIVE: TRINIDAD

Stop at the Che Guevara mausoleum and memorial in Santa Clara, where Che's remains are immortalized following their discovery in Bolivia in 1997. Santa Clara holds a special place in Cuban history, where in December 1958, Commander Ernesto Che Guevara led his revolutionary rebels in the derailment of the armoured train carrying the ammunition Batista had sent to defeat Fidel – the revolution was won.

Then it's on to the favourite destination of many a traveler to Cuba. Trinidad was founded in 1514 by Diego Velázquez and is considered a jewel in Cuban colonial architecture. For some, Trinidad is a living museum, stuck in the time of Cuba's first War of Independence when local sugar plantations were devastated by fire. The vibrant colours and soulful music littered along cobbled streets will simply take your breath away.

Take the opportunity to visit a local waterfall, historic sugar mill or one of Cuba's best beaches – Playa Ancon. An evening at one of Trinidad's effervescent music venues is a must!

DAY SIX AND SEVEN: CAMAGUEY

Don't get lost in "La Ciudad Confusa" (the maze)! The labyrinth of winding streets and alleys of Cuba's third largest city shouldn't be enough to put you off visiting the beguiling city of Camaguey – a city built to confuse pirates.

With its large number of squares and parks, colonial architecture and enriched spiritual persona, Camaguey is a mecca for Cuban arts and culture. Plan a visit to a famous historical landmark or explore a myriad of art galleries and handicraft exhibits – it's entirely up to you! There are also some of Cuba's best beaches close by at Playa Santa Lucia.

A guided tour on the back of a bicycle taxi is our gift to you!

DAY EIGHT AND NINE: SANTIAGO DE CUBA

The second largest city in Cuba is surely its most dynamic. With a myriad of ethnicities calling Santiago home, it's hard not to get swept away in its joyous and prepossessing surroundings. Plus its music and dance scene is quite possibly the best in Cuba.

As the most Caribbean of Cuban destinations with a backdrop of mountains and rugged terrain, Santiago de Cuba has many things to show off and be proud of. It is the hub of most of the music genres in Cuba and the locals are hospitable, resourceful and virtuous.

Make sure you visit one of Santiago de Cuba's famous tobacco factories when in town and take in a famous music venue or two in the evening on your 15 Day Cuba Group Tour.

DAY TEN, ELEVEN AND TWELVE: BARACOA

Cuba's first colonial capital, Baracoa is set amongst a mixture of palm, chocolate and banana trees. It is a land blessed with many rivers and a healthy annual rain fall, that has worked to create some of the most lush vegetation and rainforest you will ever encounter. The town has remained relatively unchanged over the years, with several houses dating back to the 19th century and a system of colonial fortifications that includes Matachin Fort and La Punta Fort.

From Baracoa there are many outdoor excursions to go on, each making use of its beautiful surroundings. Explore the bountiful rivers in the area or go boating between the tall cliffs at the mouth of Yumuri River. You can also see over 900 species of endemic flora, including around 360 that are found only in this area.

Baracoa's cuisine is world famous in Cuba and a BBQ group lunch is the best way to sample the delicious local produce.

DAY THIRTEEN, FOURTEEN AND FIFTEEN: HAVANA

Back in Havana you have the opportunity to explore some more and experience Cuban nightlife one last time. A full day tour of the city including time in a classic American car is included as part of your 15 Day Cuba Group Tour – enjoy!

Please note that Day Fifteen is the tour departure day with no activities planned, meaning you are free to depart at any time.

Day 3: Mexico City

Today your Intrepid Urban Adventures guide will pick you up from your hotel at 10am before heading to the Basilica de Guadalupe. After the visit to the Basilica you will pick up the rest of your travel mates for today.

Head out of Mexico City by local transport, experiencing how locals move about this crowded city. Hop off at the archaeological area of the Teotihuacan pyramids. As you tour the grounds, you'll visit the Moon

Pyramid, the Calzada de los Muertos (Dead Pass), and the Sun Pyramid, which is the tallest and most spectacular in the area — it's 63 metres to the top.

After exploring the pyramids, we'll continue the afternoon walking through the streets of a nearby town. Our first stop will take us into a family-run business where you will learn about 'obsidian' — the material that the Teotihuacan people use as a main element to make their tools, idols, and decorations. As well, you'll get to sip an ancient sacred drink called 'pulque,' which is extracted from the heart of the maguey (another kind of cactus) — considered by some to be the great-grandfather of tequila.

Next up on this Mexico tour, pay a visit to the cactus product factory to try some of their produces which include jams, candies, spicy lollies, alcoholic creams, and other products made by the local people from the endemic vegetation such as nopal, xoconostle, and tuna (a cactus fruit, not tuna fish!).

To finish our journey, we'll visit a local family for dinner. Their menu is always changing based on whatever they've cooked for the day — but there's always delicious options for every palate. You'll be welcomed into their home and experience traditional dinner customs.

After dinner, we'll head back to Mexico City, arriving at about 9.30pm.

Transportation

For the greatest efficiency and comfort, all of our Cuba group tours use a mixture of private transportation, local Viazul bus and taxi.

Spending Money on Tour

Everyone is different in the amount of money they will spend on one of our Cuba group tours. Your main expenses on our 8 Day Cuba Group Tour will be food, drinks, airport departure transportation, souvenirs, optional activities, and tips. For our 8 Day Cuba Group tour we estimate that you will need between USD$400 – USD$550 for expenses (not including the on location payment).

OUR TOP 10 CUBA TRAVEL TIPS FOR A GREAT TOUR EXPERIENCE IN CUBA!

1 – MONEY, MONEY MONEY

Familiarise yourself with the dual Cuban currency system early on. Make sure you have access to enough cash for the duration of your trip (Euro, GBP or CAD is best) or a credit or debit card that is likely to work – review our 'Important Info' section for more details.

2 – PAPERWORK

Travel insurance and a Cuban tourist visa are a prerequisite – it is a requirement of the Cuban government and of Locally Tours.

3 – LANGUAGE

Make an effort to learn a little Spanish before you go. Cubans will appreciate you trying to speak Spanish and will be more welcoming as a result (especially if it is done with a smile).

4 – ADAPTERS

Remember your adapter(s), it could be difficult to buy or borrow one in Cuba.

5 – CONNECTIVITY

Don't choose Cuba as a destination if you plan to be online or on the phone the whole time... choose it if you plan not to be.

6 – EMPATHY

Have some empathy with the demands that come with experiencing a country that has a very different way of life. A good sense of humour, plenty of patience and a willingness to learn are all very important qualities.

7 – ADAPT

Never look to impose your own culture, traditions or beliefs on others and instead look to appreciate and understand those of the locals.

8 – JUDGEMENT

Use good judgement and avoid doing anything that does not feel safely controlled.

9 – PREPARE

Pack well. Study the Locally trip notes before your tour and pack all those essential items to ensure a comfortable journey.

10 – HAVE FUN

Bring an open-mind and be ready to have fun... we cannot stress this enough!

If you have any more Cuba Travel Tips, let us know and we will be more than happy to post them on Alternative styles of accommodation if you are interested in meeting the locals – please let us know if you would like to try this style of hotel.

Accommodation

Our Cuba group tours use only the best Casa Particulares – Cuban B&B's. These Cuban Bed and Breakfast establishments offer a taste of authentic life on the island. You will be staying as a guest of a family in private accommodation. You'll have privacy while still being able to interact with the locals as much as you want. It's a stark difference to most types of accommodation, and you will truly be made to feel welcome – you might forget that you're a paying guest and not a long lost family friend!

A number of accommodation options are in older buildings without an elevator. If you have issues with mobility and will be unable to comfortably climb several flights of stairs, please let us know.

WHAT IS A CASA PARTICULAR?

Casa Particular (or Casa Particulares in the plural form) is Spanish for 'private home'. In 1997 the Cuban government allowed local people to rent out their properties to visitors for the first time; prior to this all accommodation on the island was owned by the government, and this is why these Cuban-styled B&B's or rental apartments are called Casa Particulares to distinguish them as privately run establishments.

A Casa Particular is a Cuban Homestay or B&B. Staying in a Casa Particular is a brilliant way of immersing yourself in the life and culture of fascinating Cuba. When you choose a Casa Particular for your accommodation, you will meet the local people on a one-to-one basis and get a rare glimpse into the everyday life of ordinary people in Cuba. In addition, your host or hostess will be able to advise you on all things Cuban – the best restaurants, the best music and Salsa venues and any seasonal attractions that are only known to the locals!

Owners of a Casa Particular have to pay an annual per-room tax to the government and are entitled to "advertise" their establishment by placing a small sign on the door – two blue triangles – "roofs"- against a white background. Most of the owners/operators are fiercely proud of their businesses and really strive to give holiday makers a brilliant and authentic Cuban home-stay experience.

All of our Locally Cuba Tours include transportation – whether it be the group or private tours we run in Cuba. We also include the transportation to any of the activities or excursions we includes as part of our Cuba tours as well.

The transportation we use on our Cuba Tours depends on a number of factors including a) Type of tour b) number of people on tour c) distance travelled and d) road and weather conditions.

For our private Cuba tours we most often use private cars or minivans while on our group tours we use the very comfortable Viazul bus service, taxis, private buses and bicycle taxis. Where possible, we also encourage our tour participants to walk around the cities and towns they visit.

For our tours that go as far as Sanitago de Cuba or Baracoa, we generally also use the domestic flight service operated by either Aerogaviota or Aerocaribbean.

UNDERSTANDING THE CUBA TRANSPORT SYSTEM

Because of Cuba's economic and political background, the transportation system works slightly differently to other places around the world.

Local Transportation laws permit Cuban tourists to travel on government-subsidised transportation which might include buses, trucks and horse-drawn carriages.

The government has however set-up a separate bus service that tourists can use called Viazul. These buses are relatively modern and air-conditioned. They are comfortable to travel on and often stop a number of times between destinations for food and refreshments.

The Viazul bus service is used by Locally Cuba Tours on our small group Cuba tours on many occasions.

You can view the Viazul Bus Schedule here.

PRIVATE CUBA TOUR TRANSPORTATION

For both our small group tours and private tours, we use 'private' transportation between destinations. This might consist of an air-conditioned private car or mini-bus to transport our tour participants between destinations. This type of transportation allows us to make many unscheduled stops at various points of interest on your journey. We are also able to be more flexible with our arrival and departure times.

We leave it with our Local Cuba guides to determine the best mode of transport for each tour they run (unless already finalised as part of a Private Cuba Tour booking). There might be occasions where taking an authentic bicycle taxi or Classic American Car is the best way to explore the city. Or the Viazul bus service might be the best option due to road and weather conditions.

Of most importance to us is your comfort and well being, so you can rest-assured we have your best interests at heart.

DOMESTIC FLIGHTS IN CUBA

On our 15 Day Cuba Group Tour and some of our Private Cuba Tours, we travel east to destinations such as Baracoa and Santiago de Cuba. Because of the significant drive times involved in getting to these places, we almost always use a domestic flights to get our tour participants back to Havana.

The airline used for these domestic flights is either Aerogaviota or Aerocaribbean. Flight times are generally around the 1.5 hour mark and both airlines have a historically good safety record.

AIRPORT ARRIVAL TRANSFER

For almost all of the Cuba tours we run, we include an airport transfer on arrival – for your peace of mind and comfort.

A Locally Cuba Tours representative will be waiting outside of the Terminal doors, with a sign with your name on it.

It is however very easy to catch your own taxi from the airport. It should cost you 25CUC (remember 1USD = 1CUC) and take around 30-40 minutes dependent on traffic.

Locally Cuba Tours can arrange airport transfers from Varadero to Havana as well if requested.

Cuba is a very safe place in many ways but as safe as this island is, there are still occasional incidents of crime (although violent crime is almost non existent). Cuba safety is our number one priority at Locally Tours.

In Cuba hustlers are called Jineteros/ Jineteras

Although Cuba does not have a concept of crime as it exists in other countries, it is still important for a traveler to use good judgement. There is generally a high concentration of police in most cities and no known terrorist threat.

Here are some helpful safety tips when traveling through Cuba:

Do not flaunt your wealth. Cubans are very poor compared to most tourists so it is advised to show respect in this regard

Look after your belongings in crowded areas to avoid becoming the victim of a bag snatcher or pick pocket

At night, travel in taxis in groups of 2 or more

If you are doing anything adventurous, you might not know the level of inspection, safety laws and training involved. Use good judgement and avoid doing anything that does not feel safely controlled.

Read the Jineteros & Scams section here

Locally Cuba Tours prides itself on the extensive network of ground operations, tour leaders and local contacts in Cuba which keep us informed and up-to-date on Cuba safety and on all local situations in which we operate. Our passengers' safety in Cuba is of the utmost priority and we rely on these networks to allow us to make the operational decisions necessary to keep our trips running safely. We often know of situations on the ground before the media and we are in constant contact with our local offices, tour leaders, local operators, and colleagues in order to closely monitor and inform you of the most current information affecting any regions where we operate.

From a medical perspective, Cuba is very safe providing you are careful with what you eat and drink

Please also read our Safety Guidelines for further information on the operational safety standards you can expect on every Locally Tours trip.

As whole, the island is considered to be free of most dangerous fauna

WOMAN TRAVELLERS

In terms of personal safety and well being, Cuba is a very good destination for woman travellers. In most instances, streets can be walked alone at night and violent crime is almost non-existent. Cuban males have a machismo side to their culture, so can be very chivalrous and protective of females. This however can work both ways and Cubans have also been known to pursue relentlessly. In some cases Cuban males might make incessant whistling and kissing sounds which can make foreigners understandably uncomfortable. The first step to overcoming this annoyance is by simply ignoring these advances. In some cases it might be necessary to be a little more forceful and some simple, clear Spanish phrases should do the trick. As with all travel destinations, it is good to be very clear with local men what you are and are not interested in.

Some phrases you might use are:

“No moleste” (don't annoy me)

“Esta Bueno ya” (that's enough)

“Que falta respeto” (you are being disrespectful)

Spending Money on Tour

Many people traveling to Cuba believe that it will be as affordable as other developing countries they have been to. Unfortunately this isn't really the case, with prices for food, drinks and services being comparable to the more 'Western' countries.

Given Cuba's unique political and economic ideals, the government places heavy taxes on anything considered 'not-essential' or anything related to travel and tourism. Having introduced a tourist currency – CUC's – the government is able to control the prices charged for tourism related services meaning Cuba is a lot more expensive to travel through than one may first think.

The amount you will spend per day differs from person to person and from tour to tour. You might really enjoy a night out, want to stock up on Cuban rum and cigars or simply do as many optional activities as you can on your Cuba tour. Locally Cuba Tours recommends you budget anywhere from 30-50CUC per day, during your time in Cuba (not including the on location payment) Remember, if you plan to exchange currency you should bring Pounds, Euros or Canadian Dollars.

HERE ARE SOME OF THE EXPENSES YOU CAN EXPECT WHEN YOU ARRIVE IN CUBA:

- Taxi from Havana Airport to your hotel or Casa: 25CUC (unless you have an airport transfer booked)
- On Location Payment
- Drinks
- Souvenirs (rum, cigars, clothing)
- Food (this could be anywhere from 10CUC – 50CUC per day dependent on your budget)
- Tipping
- Optional activities and excursions
- Airport departure tax (25CUC)

TOUR INCLUSIONS

- Local English-speaking guide
- Transportation between destinations
- Breakfasts
- A selection of the 'best of' activities and excursions
- Airport Transfers

To enter Cuba, the Cuban government (and Locally Tours) requires you to have Cuba travel insurance which you may be required to present at immigration when entering the country.
