Cruise Description

15 Night South American Eastbound Cruise departing from Valparaiso to Buenos Aires onboard Norwegian Sun.

Your unforgettable adventure around the southern tip of South America begins the moment you depart Santiago. Consider ports Puerto Montt and Puerto Chacabuco a prelude to the main event. Marvel at breathtaking waterfalls and huge glaciers as you cruise the Patagonic Channels, Chilean Fjords and Straight of Magellan. Mingle among the real "March of the Penguins" in the Falkland Islands. Catch your breath and some multicultural European charm in Montevideo. And brush up on your dance moves in Buenos Aires, birthplace of the tango.

Highlights of this cruise:

Valparaiso, Santiago De Chile, Chile

This beautiful city clings to impossibly steep cliffs, bisected by twisting footpaths, stairways and the city's unique system of 16 funicular cars called ascensores. Valparaiso is only one hour away from Santiago. On your trip from Santiago to Valparaiso you can enjoy spectacular views of numerous vineyards and snow-capped mountain-peaks of the Andes.

Puerto Montt, Chile

Gateway to the life-affirming natural beauty of southern Chile, Puerto Montt is in a perfect spot for visiting Chilean Patagonia. Explore the Chiloé Islands or Vicente Perez Rosales National Park, home to the Osorno volcano, Petrohue falls and Todos Los Santos Lake.

Puerto Chacabuco, Chile

Located on a picturesque fjord, the small, isolated town of Puerto Chacabuco is the gateway to Chile's stunning scenery. Discover dipping green valleys, the magnificent Andes Mountains and the glaciers of Laguna San Rafael National Park.

Punta Arenas, Chile

Squeezed on a narrow shelf between the towering Andes and the Strait of Magellan, Punta Arenas is totally isolated from the rest of Chile. Once the busiest port in South America and the epicenter for Chile's sheep ranching, today Punta Arenas is a major marine center and supply base for Antarctic expeditions.

Ushuaia, Argentina

The southernmost town in the world faces the Beagle Channel, where Charles Darwin encountered the now-extinct Yahgan Indians in 1832. In this desolate, wind-swept part of the world, the scenery and wildlife are awesome. Visit the Parque Nacional Tierra del Fuego, where you'll find magnificent beech forests, towering mountains, bottomless bogs, crystal clear lakes and a plethora of wildlife including seals, walruses and giant seabirds.

Montevideo, Uruguay

This charming resort/capital sits on the northern shore of the wide River Plata, surrounded by extensive ranchland. The peaceful waterfront is lined with sandy beaches, and the charming Old Town is an open-air museum of 18th- and 19th-century colonial architecture.

Stanley, Falkland Islands

The capital of the Falklands - a group of 400 islands with a population of less than 3,000 - offers a taste of Victorian England in the South Atlantic. It's the smallest and most remote capital city in the world. In the days of the great sailing ships, Stanley Harbour saw much traffic as vessels called there regularly during journeys around Cape Horn. Now many islanders are sheep farmers, fiercely loyal to Britain and warmly hospitable to all who visit.

Norwegian Sun

Ship Rating: ★★★★★

The first of the Norwegian fleet designed to completely embody Norwegian's "Freestyle" cruising concept, the Sun is defined by fabulous choice after choice. With nine restaurants -- including those offering Pacific Rim, Italian and other specialties -- you can have a different type of meal each day of your cruise, with seating at whichever hour of the evening you please. There's also an Internet cafe with 20 computers as well as wine tastings and art auctions. An outdoor basketball court, jogging track, batting cages, golf simulators and a fitness center that never closes will keep more active types busy. Nightlife is first rate, with dancing, Broadway shows, a cigar bar and other lounges, variety shows and the Monte Carlo Casino. Don't worry about the kids -- they're making their own splashes with the Kid's Crew.
