ITINERARY

24th Apr 2020
Day 1 Arrive in Beijing, China

Fly from Australia, upon arrival pick up from Beijing Capital International Airport and transfer to your hotel. Please look for a pick-up sign at the arrival area that displays your name.

25th Apr 2020
Day 2 Beijing sightseeing (Breakfast)

Your exploration of Beijing begins at Tiananmen Square and The Forbidden City. As the largest city square in the world, Tiananmen Square is the first must-see tourist attraction for Chinese and foreign visitors. The Forbidden City, actually a nick-name for the Imperial Palace, was the political center of China for almost 600 years, during the Ming and Qing dynasties.

Enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure or join an optional Hutong
Rickshaw tour with Rickshaw ride and lunch in a local family (price: 300 RMB per person payable upon arrival). These narrow alleyways lined by courtyard residences will give you an insider’s look into the lives of local families.

26th Apr 2020

Day 3 Great Wall of China (Breakfast, Lunch)

An exciting morning to China’s historic symbol - the Great Wall, a monumental feat of ancient Chinese engineering. Once you set foot on the wall, you will be appreciated by this longest, oldest and most labour-intensive projects in mankind's history. En-route stop at a Jade carving workshop to learn about the 5,000 year culture of Chinese jade. On the way back, we will pass by modern exteriors of the Bird's Nest and Water Cube.

Tonight you can choose to watch the Golden Mask Dynasty show (optional, price: 350 RMB per person payable upon arrival), a large-scale Chinese musical drama showed at OCT Theater in Beijing Happy Valley. It is a fairy tale about wars, royalty and romance. A queen, who wears a golden mask, creates a splendid dynasty. In the years of wars, Golden Mask Dynasty defeat Blue Mask Dynasty. However, the queen declares a total amnesty. The king of Blue Mask Dynasty is moved by her mercy and trust. Soon, they fall in love with each other. Unfortunately, there comes catastrophic natural disaster. The queen scarifies herself to save the people.

27th Apr 2020
Day 4 - Beijing to Suzhou (High speed train), China

Enjoy a high speed bullet train experience from Beijing to Suzhou this morning. Suzhou, which dates back to 514 BC, is sometimes called the "Venice of the East". Visit Shan Tang Street, which has always been regarded as the first name of Suzhou ancient streets. It has a long history of about 1,100 years, its layout and architecture are the best to represent the characteristics of Suzhou's old alleys, and it has connections to many ancient Chinese celebrities and anecdotes. There is an option to take a cruise along the Grand Canal (optional) to view life along China's ancient waterway.

28th Apr 2020
Day 5 - Suzhou to Wuxi, China

Suzhou, which dates back to 514 BC, is sometimes called the "Venice of the East". There is an option to take a cruise along the Grand Canal (optional) to view life along China’s ancient waterway. Today visit the famous Lingering Garden. The Lingering Garden is a renowned classical Chinese garden and is recognised with other classical Suzhou gardens as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. China is known for its silk, so of course a visit to the Silk Spinning Factory is in order.

This afternoon drive to Wuxi (approximately a 1 hour coach ride) and enjoy free time at leisure in Nanchan Street, an ancient street which has been elegantly renovated.

29th Apr 2020
Day 6 - Wuxi to Hangzhou, China

This morning visit Li Lake Park, the habitat of egrets and many rare species of birds. View the picturesque Taihu Lake, the second biggest fresh water lake in China. Then visit a Pearl Outlet to learn more about traditional Chinese pearl. Afterwards drive to Hangzhou (approximately a 2 hour coach ride), where the 2016 G20 Summit was held in September 2016.
30th Apr 2020

Day 7 - Hangzhou to Shanghai (Breakfast), China

This morning start this amazing day with a small boat ride on the West Lake another UNESCO World Heritage Site, which reveals the ethereal beauty of Hangzhou’s willow draped islands. Hangzhou is considered the tea capital of China, so a visit to the city just isn't complete without a trip to a local tea house. Make a special visit to the Tea House at Meijiawu Tea Village located at the hinterland of West Lake Park which is considered one of the most important Longjing tea productions in China. Enjoy the natural environment and beautiful village scenery while learning more about their special tea culture and how to appreciate the sophisticated taste and aroma of Longjing tea. At the Tea House, learn how to make the Longjing Tea including tea leaves picking, frying and tasting.

Drive to Shanghai to visit the famous Bund (Approx. 2 hour bus ride). Shanghai is divided by the Huang Pu River into eastern and western sections. Modern mega high rises are seen on the eastern side while traditional European style architecture may be seen on the western side. The Bund is a five-block riverfront promenade with many of Shanghai’s banks and trading houses. Tonight there is an optional activity to watch a superb and thrilling Chinese Acrobatic Show "ERA: The Intersection of Time" (optional).

1st May 2020
Day 8 Shanghai (Breakfast), China

This morning, step back in time at the Shanghai Museum - home to more than 120,000 objects and artworks. Enjoy some free time at leisure this afternoon or join an optional half-day tour of Shanghai (not included) including Yu Garden, believed to have been built in the Ming Dynasty, more than 400 years ago. The exquisite layout, beautiful scenery, and the artistic style of the garden architecture have made the garden one of the highlights of Shanghai. Other attractions include Xintiandi, Old Town and Nanjing Road. In the evening, take the opportunity to join the optional Night Cruise on the Huangpu River (not included).

2nd May 2020
Day 9 Transfer to Port of Baoshan (Breakfast)

Baoshan (Shanghai), China
Embark the Spectrum of the Seas

5th May 2020
Vladivostok, Russia, Russia

Russia's largest port city, Vladivostok was a closed city 15 years ago. Today, Vladivostok is a city whose streets are made for walking. Its main avenues and boulevards, hidden alleyways and even its dirt trails provide a path towards fascinating historical and cultural discoveries. On foot, meander your way through the city and find yourself in an area surrounded by fortresses dating back to the 1800s or in front of a mermaid statue.

Journey ends & memories begin!

Life aboard MSC Splendida
MSC Splendida is a world traveller. Until mid-February 2020 the ship is in the Far East, then returns from Shanghai to Hamburg over 54 nights via the Suez Canal. The itinerary stays overnight at Dubai, Bangkok and Hong Kong, and visits many ports missed by other cruise ships. For four months Splendida sails out of Kiel (Germany) to the Baltic ports and southern Norway. Later in the year she cruises the western Mediterranean. In mid-November 2020 the ship crosses the Pacific to sail the eastern and southern Caribbean from the island ports of Martinique and Basse-Terre. Choose either of two 7-night itineraries, or join them for 14 nights. You'll visit a port a day and visit a dozen islands.

In service since 2009 at 137,936 GT she carries 3,274 passengers. This is the most innovative ship built by MSC, and is rather special. New are the Yacht Club ship-within-a-ship living space with Courtyard Villa complex, retractable glass pool roof, 4D with strapped-in-seats cinema, Balinese spa, and high ratio of balcony staterooms. English speaking travellers who are comfortable with European service and cuisine will find the ship a delight. Dining places offer an excellent range. Note that specialty restaurants have no extra charge, but the menu is à la carte with reasonable prices. This ship is best suited to young couples, singles, families who enjoy big ship city life, with its mix of noise, nationalities and languages. MSC Cruises are family orientated, and children are very much catered for, filling the ship in school holidays. Children sail free on certain itineraries, sharing a cabin with two adults.

Accommodation
Of her 1,637 cabins, 80% have an ocean view, and as many have private balconies they are quite affordable. All cabins have single beds that can be converted into a double bed, air conditioning, bathroom with shower, interactive television, radio, telephone, internet connection (for a fee), minibar, and safe. All cabins and staterooms are modern, comfortable and very stylish. For all cabins continental breakfast is complimentary from 7.30 to 10 am, while room service snacks can be bought at other times. For suites a basket of fruit is provided at embarkation, and replenished daily.

A total of 72 suites are located on two aft decks, called the “MSC Yacht Club”. Guests have access to their own VIP areas, receive priority treatments, various luxuries and a 24-hour butler service. New Aurea Suites at forefront of ship, offering great views and have close access to Aurea Spas. The black marble floor and glass staircase joining the two decks gives access to exclusive hydro-massage pools, skydome swimming pool, solarium, and observation lounge with bar. There are no single cabins, and 43 wheelchair-accessible across all cabin grades. Room service food is charged per item.

Food and Dining
The ship has four restaurants and two buffet areas. The two-deck La Reggia Restaurant is set-table set-time venue with Mediterranean cuisine and always-available “slow food” – spaghetti, chicken breast, salmon fillets and vegetable of the day. Instead of paying for cold water in dining rooms, fill your own bottle in your cabin, chill it in the mini-bar, and bring it with you at meal times. For breakfast and lunch there is free seating, though be prepared to sit with guests using another language. The alternative restaurant Villa Verde Restaurant is also traditional, offering an assorted Mediterranean menu, including light choices and options that are always available. The ship's L'Olivo, an a la carte speciality restaurant, provides food from 14 countries located in the Mediterranean region. For spicy Mexican cuisine Tex Mex Santa Fe is the right choice. The full-view kitchen completes the traditional atmosphere of this restaurant. All the alternative dining venues charge on an à la carte basis at reasonable prices.

There's no tea or coffee for lunch and dinner in the dining rooms, only in the buffet. You may have to ask for milk. Casual breakfasts and lunches are available in a large self-serve buffet eatery. Other cafeteria eateries are Bora Bora and Pago Pago. There are numerous lounges and bars: The Purple Jazz Bar, decorated with beautiful lighting and purple shades, serves beer, wine, spirits and snacks; and the Sports bar, a wine bar, Piano Bar, Cygar Room and an aperitif bar. Sample the delights of La Piazzetta, with its bar ice-cream parlour, pastry and chocolate shop. Sit and watch fellow passengers pass by at L'Espresso Coffee Bar with its coffees, teas and chocolates.

Entertainment
The Strand Theatre is a state-of-the-art 1600 seat venue and its twice-nightly productions have received high acclaim. Some productions may be short, just 30 minutes. Catch a movie in the 4D Cinema. Dance late at Club 33 Disco or have fun at the Royal Palm Casino. For the young set there's the Graffitti Disco Teen and the video games room Virtual World.
