Grand Princess Overview

Until April 2020 Grand Princess sails from San Francisco west to Hawaii (15 nights), south to the Mexican Riviera (10 nights), and along the California Coast (7 nights). The cruises south offer relaxation and water sports. From May to September 2020 Grand Princess offers a 7-night itinerary to Alaska's fjord coast, alternating departures from Vancouver and Whittier (port for Anchorage). Guests will want to spend time in both Vancouver and Anchorage, especially seeing the museum and zoo in the latter. From October 2020 Grand Princess takes on new adventures: cross the Pacific to China (30 nights), explore E and SE Asia out of Singapore, and in March 2021 head west on a grand 28-night cruise to the Mediterranean via India and the Middle East. For the rest of 2021 Grand Princess is based at Southampton, and sails to all parts of the North Atlantic and Baltic Sea. Princess Cruises organises onshore tours that can be booked before sailing, or during the cruise. For some voyages pre- and post-cruise tours are available to extend your stay in major ports. The Ocean Medallion wearable device arrives 29 March 2020.

Accommodation

There are six types of cabin and 35 price categories: insides, outsides (some obstructed), balcony cabins, outside mini-suites (with and without balconies) and balcony suites. Cabins are roomy and nicely appointed, with satellite TV access to major channels. Standard cabins are practical and attractive, many have additional upper berths for children, and some have inter-connecting doors. The larger the stateroom, the more additional facilities. All guests receive turndown service, chocolates on pillow at night, bathrobes and amenity kits, and complimentary room service on most items 24 hours a day. There are no single cabins, 26 wheelchair-accessible cabins, and some cabins accommodate families of three and four.

Food and Dining

Traditional dining in Botticelli Dining Room offers you a pre-selection of one of two seating times throughout the cruise. Anytime Dining (sitting when and with whom you choose) is offered in Da Vinci and Michelangelo Dining Rooms. Both serve five course meals changed daily, with chefs inducted into the prestigious Chained des Regisseurs gastronomic society. Sabatini's serves Italian cuisine, Crown Grill serves steak and seafood, and there's Crab Shack (all for an extra cover charge). Dress code is smart casual, and on cruises longer than three days dress for a formal night for every week of sailing. Breakfast and lunch are provided in an open seating arrangement. (Of course a continental breakfast can be delivered to your stateroom, and there is a stateroom menu.) Passengers booked in cabins with balconies can order several special, romantic meals to be served restaurant-style on the verandah - Ultimate Balcony Dining. Order special dietary requests before sailing.

Entertainment

As for entertainments, there is more than can be squeezed into a week. The Princess Theatre is two decks high, featuring glamorous production shows every second or third evening. The Vista Show Lounge with its three stages presents cabaret, and doubles for lectures, bingo and horse-racing during the day. Explorer's Lounge hosts cabaret acts and dance bands. Movies first-run feature films pool-side at Under the Stars on Sun Deck. The new night club is One5. There are lounges with live music and dancing. A new feature is the new three-deck-high street-cafe-style Piazza, for sipping coffee and watching the occasional passing performer. Stroll around and shop duty-free, or check your email at the Internet Café.
