Coral Princess Overview

Coral Princess sails between the east and west coasts of North America around October/November and April each year. The 15-night crossing of the Panama Canal between Fort Lauderdale and San Francisco is a unique experience. From May to September each year Coral Princess offers 7-night cruises each way between Vancouver and Anchorage (port of Whittier), along the fjord coast and Inside Passage of Alaska and British Columbia. From each December to March Coral Princess cruises around South America and even makes scenic tours off the Antarctica Peninsula. There are so many interesting side excursions possible (cities like Buenos Aires, flight to the Iguazu Falls, street art of Valparaiso etc.), and the sights of Patagonia are magnificent.

Princess Cruises has an excellent range of onshore programs for each port of call, possibly the best of any major Line, and these can be planned ahead of the cruise, or organised during the cruise.

Accommodation

There are six main categories of staterooms - Suites with balcony, Mini-Suites with balcony, Balcony, Oceanview, Oceanview Obstructed, and Interior – and 33 grades, which give a broad choice according to guests' needs of space and price. All cabins have pleasing décor and reasonable storage space, satellite TV, refrigerator, and 24-hour room service. Fresh fruit (by request), evening bed turn-down, bathroom lotions, and bathrobes (by request) come with every stateroom. Standard cabins are well-designed and functional. Some cabins accommodate a third and even a fourth person. Generally twin beds can be made up into a queen-size bed. Bedding is top quality. There are no interconnecting or single cabins. There are 20 wheelchair-accessible cabins, and guests with disabilities are well catered for. An in-cabin dining menu is available 24-hours.

Food and Dining

Traditional dining in Provence Dining Room has two seatings for dinner. Bordeaux Dining Room offers Anytime Dining, eating when and where you want. Both serve five course meals changed daily, with chefs inducted into the prestigious Chaîne des Rôtisseurs gastronomic society. Tables are set for 2, 4, 6 or 8, and dress is formal or smart casual. Sabatini's Italian Trattoria (with cover charge) serves Italian cuisine. The Bayou Café and Steakhouse is a New Orleans-themed restaurant (with modest cover charge) with the food and music you'd expect. And there's the Crab Shack. On cruises longer than three days dress for a formal night for every week of sailing. Breakfast and lunch are provided in an open seating arrangement. A continental breakfast can be delivered to your stateroom, and there is a stateroom menu. Passengers booked in cabins with balconies can order several special, romantic meals served on the verandah - Ultimate Balcony Dining. Order special dietary requests before sailing.

Entertainment

In the evening having two show lounges (both theatre and cabaret style) is a great way to give passengers more entertainment choices. During her 2009 refurbishment additions included a Movies Under the Stars screen in the main pool area for new movie releases, sporting events and concert videos. Adults have their own private sunbathing area, the Sanctuary, at the front of the ship. Add nine bars and lounges, nightclub and dance floors, and the casino, to the list of evening options. Alternatively, just stroll around and shop duty-free, or for a quiet time retire to the Library/Card Room or Internet Café. Weddings are officiated by the Captain.
