About Clifton Beach:

Clifton Beach is a quiet, un-spoilt local's beach lined by swaying Palms with a number of low rise properties on the beachfront esplanade. Clifton Beach has a swimming net and a great children's playground with barbeque facilities right on the beach for all to enjoy under the shade of big raintrees and plenty of parking space.

At Clifton Beach you could walk for miles in either direction taking in the surrounding natural beauty the rainforest clad mountains offer, passing other beachfront suburbs along the way and peering into the multi millionaire's beach houses as you go by.

This pleasant beach runs right through to Palm Cove Beach offering the best of both beaches, you will have easy access to Palm Cove and its offerings of restaurants and day spas while residing in a quiet beachfront location relatively untouched by too much tourism and over development.

Clifton Beach has no high-rise buildings, only low-lying holiday houses and self contained holiday apartments camouflaged into the natural environment. This quiet beach is great for families and couples seeking privacy.

Clifton Beach is only 20 minutes drive away from Cairns City and about 45 minutes driving time from Port Douglas so you are central to everything Cairns has to offer.
