Tour & Cruise Itinerary:DAY 1: Fly Australia to Seattle

This morning, arrive in Seattle. The remainder of the day is free for you to explore at leisure. Overnight State Hotel or Executive Pacific Hotel.

Seattle, a city on Puget Sound in the Pacific Northwest, is surrounded by water, mountains and evergreen forests, and contains thousands of acres of parkland. Washington State's largest city, it's home to a large tech industry, with Microsoft and Amazon headquartered in its metropolitan area. The futuristic Space Needle, a 1962 World's Fair legacy, is its most iconic landmark.

Day 2: Alaska Inside Passage Cruise.

After breakfast, please checkout of the hotel and make your way to the cruise dock by taxi to check in your Alaska Inside Passage Cruise on Carnival Freedom.

| Day # | Scheduled Port | Scheduled Arrival | Scheduled Departure |
|-------|-------------------------------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| 2 | Seattle, Washington | - | 4:00pm |
| 3 | Sea Day | - | - |
| 4 | Tracy Arm Fjord (Scenic Cruise Day) | - | - |
| 5 | Skagway, Alaska | 7:00am | 8:00pm |

| 8 | Victoria, B.C, Canada | 8:00pm | 11:59pm |
| 9 | Seattle, Washington | 7:00am | - |

Day 9: Seattle to Vancouver

Your Alaska cruise arrives back in Seattle. You will then be transferred from Seattle to Vancouver by motor coach. When you arrive in Vancouver you will be dropped off at the Rosedale on Robson Hotel.

Vancouver is a bustling west coast seaport in British Columbia, is among Canada's densest, most ethnically diverse cities. A popular filming location, it's surrounded by mountains, and also has thriving art, theatre and music scenes. Vancouver Art Gallery is known for its works by regional artists, while the Museum of Anthropology houses preeminent First Nations collections.

CANADIAN ROCKIES COACH TOUR

Circle West

VANCOUVER, JASPER, LAKE LOUISE, BANFF, VANCOUVER

Tour Itinerary

Day 10: Vancouver to Jasper.

Catch a taxi to the Hyatt Hotel to check in for your Canada Rockies Coach Tour. Today, your coach will wind its way through the farming communities of the Fraser Valley and Coast Mountains to the interior of British Columbia. From Kamloops, follow the Thompson River to the Albretha Glaciers. Overnight at Mt Robson Hotel, Jasper.

Day 11: Jasper to Banff

En-route to the historic Jasper townsite, visit Mount Robson, the highest peak of the Rockies. Easily accessed by train or bus, and by car in summer, Jasper is surrounded by the jagged peaks of Jasper National Park. Home to an amazing abundance of wildlife, the area is an adventure sports lover's playground. The magnificent Columbia Icefield is to the south of the small town. Summer visitors hike, climb, golf and explore. In winter, skiing, snowboarding and dog sledding top the bill.

If it's chilly, heat up at Miette Hot Springs in the National Park. Restaurants and bars hop year-round. Enjoy a leisurely hike through Maligne Canyon before heading South along the world-famous Icefields Parkway to take in some of nature's most spectacular mountain scenery. Have your camera ready for possible wildlife sightings! Highlights include Athabasca Falls, Peyto Lake, and the Columbia Icefield. Ride the "Ice Explorer"* on the Athabasca Glacier. Overnight at Banff Aspen Lodge for 2 nights.

Day 12: Sightseeing in Banff National Park

Enjoy a full day of sightseeing in Banff National Park. Start your morning with a leisurely hike in Johnston Canyon and stroll along the shores of picturesque Lake Louise and Moraine Lake. Alpine, cross-country skiing, heli-skiing and snowboarding are popular activities in quiet Lake Louise, 35 miles east of Banff, as are ice fishing, skating, dog sledding and ice climbing. In summer, the area attracts almost as many visitors to its trails, waters and rock faces. Peer into turquoise Lake Louise in Banff National Park, three miles from the town of the same name, and be amazed by the colour. The renowned grand hotel Chateau Lake Louise sits at the brim of the eponymous lake. In the afternoon, visit the world famous Banff Springs Hotel and Bow Falls.

With your free time in Banff, you may also choose from optional activities such as soaking in the natural spa at the Upper Hot Springs or taking a gondola ride to the top of Sulphur Mountain. Overnight in Banff Aspen Lodge.

Day 13: Banff to Vancouver

This morning, enjoy a drive through Rogers Pass, the highest part of the route to the Rockies. On your scenic return journey through Yoho National Park, catch a glimpse of an engineering marvel: the Spiral Tunnels. Arrive in downtown Vancouver in the evening. Overnight Rosedale on Robson Hotel Vancouver for 1 night

Day 14: Fly Home to Australia

After you have had your breakfast today, please check out of your hotel and catch a taxi to Vancouver airport for your flights home to Australia.

Day 15: Arrive Home

Please note: The day by day descriptions published are intended as an indicative guide only. Travel by nature is unpredictable. Weather patterns, road conditions, sea conditions, public holidays, travel restrictions and a multitude of other factors may necessitate itinerary changes that ultimately are for the client's benefit. It is essential that clients are flexible and open minded in this regard.

Alaska Cruise Ports:

JUNEAU, ALASKA

You can't get to Juneau easily without a sprint by air or by sea. But once you arrive you'll find majestic views and rich culture in every corner. With its snowcapped mountains, misty rainforests, massive glaciers and bounty of wildlife, Alaska's remote state capital is the perfect place to dive into nature. Framed by Mount Juneau and Mount Roberts, the city's picturesque downtown area offers centuries-old bars, boutique shops and historic landmarks. For a taste of the local culture, visit the historic district and the Alaska State Museum. And for outdoor thrills, you can take your pick of activities ranging from whale watching in Auke Bay Harbor to tundra trekking over Mendenhall Glacier, and even try your hand at gold panning in Last Chance Basin.

KETCHIKAN, ALASKA

Ketchikan sits at the southern end of Alaska's Inside Passage— a gateway to the wild landscapes and seascapes of Misty Fjords National Monument. The canned salmon capital of the world, it's a hub for fishing and outdoor sports. It's also home to three tribes of Northwest Coast Indians, making it a great place to get a taste for the local culture. You'll see it in the colorful, hand-carved totems that line the city's streets and parks, and in the unique stilted homes that cling to Deer Mountain's slopes. If you want to get up close and personal with nature, venture into the Tongass National Forest, the largest in the United States. Or head to Ketchikan Creek Waterfall for amazing views of downtown Ketchikan and a glimpse at the yearly salmon runs.

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

The tiny town of Skagway still looks like it did during the Klondike Gold Rush over 100 years ago— and today it remains an outpost for thrilling Alaskan adventure. An old-time street car ride along bustling Broadway Street reveals well-preserved buildings, including the state's oldest hotel. You can see engraved walrus tusks at the Corrington Museum, or get lost in riveting historical reenactments around town. If outdoor adventure is more your thing, there are plenty of ways to amp up the adrenaline, from sledding with Alaskan Huskies on Laughton Glacier to rafting Lynn Canal, the longest fjord in North America.

TRACY ARM FJORD, ALASKA

Tracy Arm Fjord extends over 30 miles alongside the wilderness of Tongass National Forest. Sailing through this deep and narrow passage delivers some of the most breathtaking scenery you'll find in Alaska. See active glaciers carved into 7,000-foot-tall mountain peaks and plunging waterfalls burrowed into evergreen-clad cliffs. Glimpse native wildlife and watch deep blue icebergs float past the ship.

VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA

Victoria delivers a delightful blend of British pomp and outdoor adventure. Here you can admire Victorian architecture at Craigdarroch Castle and eat your way around Canada's oldest Chinatown. Explore "Garden City" floral displays or go biking in the "Cycling Capital of Canada". From orcas whistling in the harbor to glow-in-the-dark scorpions at the Bug Zoo, Victoria has every adventure covered.

Carnival Freedom Accommodation

The cabin categories include interior staterooms, ocean view (portholes, picture window, and forward-looking floor-to-ceiling window), balcony (four grades, up to an aft wrap-around balcony), and suites (three grades). Eighty percent of the cabins are outside; 80 percent of those staterooms have private balconies. Each cabin has a gift amenity basket in its bathroom. All staterooms include flat-screen TVs, safe, mini-bar, beach towels, hair dryer, bathrobes to wear during your cruise, and Carnival Comfort Bed with plush mattresses, good quality duvets, linens and pillows. Standard cabins are a good size. Most with twin beds can be converted to king-size bed. Good design and soft lighting add to a feeling of spaciousness in interior staterooms.

Food and Dining

There are two principal two-level dining rooms – Chic and Posh – with a choice of fixed-time dining at two seatings, or flexible “Your Time Dining”. Dining assignments can be booked before the cruise. Dress up for the occasional formal. Menus change daily and service is excellent. Breakfast and lunch are open seating. Late morning Brunch is served along with a comedy presentation. Kids have their own menu. Breakfast and lunch are open seating. The Lido Restaurant buffet is the expansive two-level poolside eatery, offering casual alternatives for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Also on the pool deck is a pizza station, a deli, and the Mongolian Wok for Asian food.

Entertainment

There is something for everyone. The Victoriana Main Show Lounge spanning three decks presents large production shows and cabaret acts backed by a live show band. It has a revolving stage, hydraulic orchestra pit, and excellent sound. Seaside Theatre's giant screen over the main pool shows sports events, music videos and films. Night is the time for late buffet snacks, R-rated comedy and 70's Dance Club. There's Scott's Piano bar, and Swingtime Jazz Club for afternoon tea and before dinner drinks. These are just a few of the 22 bars and lounges splashed with kaleidoscopic colours.

travel accredited

ATAS Accreditation Number: A10718

ATAS vets travel agents against strict criteria to ensure they meet certain standards, are reliable and professional businesses. ATAS agents need to meet high levels of business discipline, training, compliance with Australian Consumer Law and compliance with a strict code of conduct – ensuring your piece of mind when booking travel. Further information can be found at <http://www.atas.com.au/>

We have met these stringent requirements in order to become nationally accredited. Our accreditation means we are the best in the industry, credible and a professional business that takes pride in its staff being expertly trained. This means you can book your travel knowing you're in the safe hands of a trusted and reputable travel agent.

Affordable Holidays - HOW DO WE DO IT???

We go directly to our overseas suppliers to source the best possible price and holiday for you. That's why our holidays are so affordable! There are many overseas operators that currently do not sell their holidays in Australia and we have approached these reputable businesses to represent them in our country. These travel professionals offer exceptional service and tours at just the right price. If you think you are paying too much for your travel arrangements, please give us a call, we will do our best to find you a holiday that fits within your travel budget.

DESTINATION INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAYS BOOKING CONDITIONS

Applies to all bookings from 20 August 2020

Please read this information prior to making your reservation

We request that you only make a booking if you agree with the following terms and conditions.

Our full set of terms and conditions are listed below, which we highly recommend you read prior to make your holiday reservations. This is the contract under which both parties enter. Immediately following is a summary in brief for our customers.

1. Upon making a reservation with Destination International Holidays you will receive a booking form, which needs to be filled out and signed to confirm that you agree to the below terms and conditions.
2. Your booking will then be confirmed to you in writing and you will be required to pay a 50% deposit.
3. At this time, you must take out travel insurance for your holiday to protect you against any unforeseen circumstances.
4. 90 days prior to departure you will be asked to make the balance payment for your trip (you will be notified if your supplier requires earlier payment).
5. 14 days prior to departure you will be sent your travel documents via express post.

Destinations International Holidays operates a Client Trust bank account. This means that we do not hold onto your money. We pay the ultimate travel providers (Suppliers) of your travel services the funds for your holiday. The Suppliers include airlines, tour operators, cruise lines, transport companies, hotels etc. We are required to pay the Suppliers deposits and final payments to secure your booking and in some instances these items are non-refundable.

If you wish to cancel you must notify us of your cancellation in writing. We will then write to the Suppliers to cancel your booking and request a refund (if applicable) for any elements of your holiday that are refundable. You will need to make an insurance claim for any travel arrangements that are non-refundable. If you have any issues during the refund or cancellation process, you have 30 days to contact our office in writing to lodge a complaint so an immediate resolution can be found for you.

1. AGREEMENT

This agreement is between you and Destination International Holidays Pty Ltd - ABN 38 154 788 155 (DI Travel, us/we/our). Customer, passenger, you or your, references the person who books or pays for travel services and includes all persons intending to travel. By booking any travel service with us, you have agreed to be bound by these terms and conditions.

2. ROLE OF DESTINATION INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAYS

Destination International Holidays sells various products and/or services on behalf of our third party suppliers and travel providers, including (without limitation) airlines, coaches, rail and transport operators, accommodation, tour operators, tour guides or the providers of any other product or service, referred to throughout as 'Suppliers'.

Our services consist of booking and co-coordinating the products and/or services offered by the Suppliers. Destination International Holidays facilitates a direct contractual relationship between you, the customer, and each Supplier. You are responsible for reading the Suppliers' terms and conditions before paying for your booking or reservation.

Destination International Holidays does not guarantee the performance of the product/services offered by Suppliers and we will not be liable in the event that you suffer loss, injury or disappointment by reason of any acts or failings of any Supplier. In such case your remedy will lie against the Supplier.

The tour information which we supply to you is provided by the Suppliers. We accept no liability for any inaccuracies or misrepresentations contained in such material. We do our best to verify the information provided to us by suppliers, but we cannot guarantee its accuracy on all occasions. All photos and videos in our brochures and on our website are for representational purposes only.

In accordance with these booking conditions Destination International Holidays will perform our duties with reasonable attention, care and expertise. To avoid any doubt, these terms and conditions apply to communications and/or bookings made directly with our consultants, whether over the phone, by email, via social media/online chat, in-store, and online via our website.

Subject to the Australian Consumer Law, Destination International Holidays will not be liable for any loss or damage, injury, delay, inconvenience, or expense caused by a Supplier. Destination International Holidays will not be liable for events beyond its control or the control of the Suppliers including, without limitation, strikes, accidents, pandemics or outbreaks of infectious diseases, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances or force majeure (Acts of God).

3. PRICES & PAYMENT

All prices of our published travel deals are listed in Australian Dollars (AUD) unless stated otherwise. The published prices include all Australian taxes, charges and service fees, including GST (where applicable). All prices are subject to availability and can be withdrawn or varied without notice.

A deposit is required to confirm your booking (amount varies depending on package booked). Receipt of deposit will be taken as an understanding by Destination International Holidays that the customer has checked their confirmed travel arrangements and has read and agreed to the terms and conditions.

Balance payment is required 90 days prior to departure and you will be notified if suppliers requirement earlier payment.

Cruise bookings will require the balance payment to made 120 days prior to departure. Typically, all payments are non-refundable.

Failure to pay by the date advised by Destination International Holidays may result in your bookings being cancelled.

Destination International Holidays accepts payment via bank transfer or credit card. Additional surcharge will be added to payments made by credit card. Please check with us for current charges. When your credit card is processed by Destination International Holidays you agree to not have your payment 'charged back' or reversed by your credit card provider where the services have been provided. If paying by bank transfer, please note that your order is not secured until the funds clear into our account.

Some additional extras, supplements, and/or surcharges may be payable after making a booking, as advised by your travel consultant. The price payable is also subject to a number of other factors including any customisations and additions made by you, changes to travel arrangements, currency fluctuations, fuel surcharges, government taxes, levies and airfare increases. We reserve the right to adjust any fees, charges or prices as necessary to reflect a material cost increase. Once full payment has been received by Destination International no surcharges in respect to currency fluctuations will be applied.

We reserve the right not to honour any published prices that we determine were erroneous due to printing, clerical or electronic error, except in the case of manifest error by us. In the event of a price decrease, we are not obliged to refund you to match any subsequent price reduction after booking confirmation.

Travel deals are typically promoted as a base 'per person' price calculated on twin share (i.e. 2 people sharing a room).

All other mandatory surcharges including but not limited to solo traveller surcharges, departure date and/or city surcharges, the selection of additional optional extras, other government taxes, levies or gratuities are in addition to the listed base price as per the terms of the travel deal.

4. TRAVEL INSURANCE

You should take out comprehensive travel insurance immediately after making a booking, as Destination International Holidays has a strict Cancellation and Refund Policy. Purchasing a comprehensive policy can help to protect yourself and any other persons intending to travel from unforeseen circumstances or the inability to travel through your insurer's cancellation cover.

If you make a booking with Destination International Holidays and decline travel insurance, you may be required to sign a disclaimer.

Please note that some credit card providers will provide the card holder with travel insurance. Where you are paying for all or any part of the services arranged through us by credit card and you intend to use travel insurance supplied by the credit card provider you acknowledge that Destination International Holidays has offered you travel insurance and that you waive any claim against Destination International Holidays in respect of any loss or damage you may suffer as a result of you failing to take out any or adequate travel insurance.

Destination International Holidays has no responsibility for and excludes all liability in relation to your Insurance claims. Destination International Holidays recommends travel insurance (where available) against loss of deposits through cancellation charges, baggage loss, medical expenses, theft and the insolvency of Destination International Holidays or any of the Suppliers and including protection against a Force Majeure Event or for any other requirements specific to your travel plans.

Destination International Holidays makes no representations or guarantees concerning reimbursements of funds paid by you under any insurance claim. You agree not to hold Destination International Holidays responsible for any decision made by insurers, and/or by any Suppliers, or requirements of any overseas country or governmental authority or overseas laws and policies. Insurance providers are considered as a third-party, any contract is between you and the selected provider.

5. FEES, CHARGES & REFUNDS

5.1 Amendments & changes to bookings

If you wish to change a confirmed reservation or booking you are likely to incur fees. In some cases, it may not be possible to change a booking or to cancel, or it may be uneconomic for you to do so. You should always check the cost before requesting changes to your travel arrangements. Please read the terms and conditions of the Suppliers which apply to your travel arrangements.

Any amendment or deviation from advertised travel deals and/or quotes will incur a fee of $150 per person.

Should you need to alter your confirmed reservation, there will be an automatic fee charged of $150 per person per amendment or transaction. Additionally, there may be cancellation fees levied by the Supplier or fees may be applicable where arrangements have been pre-purchased. In addition, we charge:

- $50 per person for all airline seat reservations and baggage charges plus any airline fees.
- $100 per person for all Tourist visa processing plus the cost for the visa fee.
- $75 per person to reissue any travel documents lost in the mail.
- $100 per person to process travel insurance claims and provide a statement for your insurance company.
- $50 per person travel document printing fee

5.2 Cancellation fees

If you cancel a confirmed reservation or booking the Supplier is likely to charge you a cancellation fee. Further, some tickets may be non-refundable or non-transferable. It is important to check the position with us before you confirm arrangements and/or before you cancel any confirmed bookings. Please read the Supplier's special conditions in relation to your travel arrangements.

All proposed cancellations must be communicated to Destination International Holidays in writing as soon as they become known, and must be validated and authorised by Destination International Holidays.

Destination International Holidays will charge a 15% cancellation fee on all refundable portions of a cancelled tour. You acknowledge that the Destination International Holidays service fee is fair remuneration for the work done by Destination International Holidays in arranging your travel arrangements.

Cancellation fees will be levied relative to the amount of notice given as follows:

| | | | | |
|-------------|--------------------------------------|-------|-------|------|
| Days Notice | 90 or more | 89-75 | 74-65 | 64-1 |
| | Loss of Deposit and 50% loss of fare | 75% | 85% | 100% |

The above are Destination International Holidays cancellation fees. Airlines and Tour Operators may have additional fees. Transfer of a confirmed booking to another tour or departure date is deemed a cancellation of the original booking. There will be no refund for cancellation of unused services on or after commencement date. Please note that employees of any overseas suppliers are not authorised by Destination International Holidays to make any undertakings to our clients in respect of refunds or other matters.

5.3 Refunds

If your travel arrangements are cancelled for any reason (including force majeure) after you have paid, no refund will be available to you until Destination International Holidays receives the monies from the Supplier involved. In most cases, the Supplier will charge a cancellation fee and in some instance you may not be able to claim a refund.

Destination International Holidays is not responsible for any delays by a Supplier in processing a refund. You should be aware that airlines may take a significant time to process a refund.

Should the price of an airfare, cruise or tour be reduced after you have made payment your right to a refund (if any) is governed by the terms and conditions which apply to the airfare, cruise or tour as determined by Supplier.

Unless otherwise stated in your costings and itinerary document in addition to any fee charged by a Supplier, Destination International Holidays will charge you a fee to process a refund request. Destination International Holidays earns commissions and/or charges service fees in making your travel arrangements. Destination International Holidays reserves the right to retain the commissions and service fees that is earned on your booking from any refund should your booking be cancelled for any reason (including for force majeure).

Please contact Destination International Holidays on 1300 813 391 for further information with respect to cancellation queries or for full details please refer to our Cancellation and Refund Policy.

6. PASSPORT & VISA REQUIREMENTS

Prior to confirming your travel arrangements, you should check your passport and establish that it will remain current for the entire period of your travel.

It is the responsibility of each member of the travelling party to ensure that they have a valid passport and the necessary visa/s for the destination/s to be visited.

Destination International Holidays recommends all travellers prior to making a booking, understands the entry and exit rules of the destination(s) they are travelling to. To check, as an Australian Passport holder the destination's advice please go to <https://smartraveller.gov.au>

Certain countries require that your passport remains valid for a period of up to twelve months after the date upon which you are scheduled to leave such country. You may be denied entry to a country if your passport expires within 12 months. You should clarify visa requirements with the Embassies of the countries that you plan to visit as certain countries may require you to take out a visa dependant on whether you are travelling on an Australian or a foreign passport.

The authorities in some countries (including The USA) require holders of Australian passports to take out a visa for entry into their country where the traveller has been sentenced or imprisoned or been convicted of certain types of criminal offence. A visa may be required where a contagious disease or a serious health problem exists.

Re-entry visas will/may be required for travellers leaving Australia holding a foreign passport. If you hold a foreign passport then it is your responsibility to make your own enquiries and satisfy yourself as to the position in regard to your passport and/or visa requirements before leaving Australia.

If you do not obtain the correct visas, for whatever reason, you will be liable for any associated expenses, fees, penalties, costs, liabilities, damages or losses and are not entitled to a Destination International Holidays refund as this decision is outside of the control of Destination International Holidays.

7. HEALTH & VACCINATIONS

All customers must be well enough to travel (whether physical, medical or otherwise). It's your responsibility to ensure that you're aware of any specific health requirements for your travel destination(s) prior to making a booking and be responsible for ensuring that any applicable needs can be met during travels.

This includes understanding whether you are authorised to carry or use certain medications and or medical/mobility equipment (including batteries with respect to flights and cruises) and/or whether you are required to provide supporting medical documentation such as prescriptions or medical certificates.

For some countries, a failure to disclose a health condition, proof of vaccination or a medical certificate may result in the applicable country/airline/cruise refusing you entry/boarding, or in you being detained, expelled or repatriated from the applicable country at your cost.

If you have any concerns regarding health requirements of the travel destination(s), we suggest you refer to your health professional and/or the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) 'Smart Traveller' service prior to placing an order. We recommend that you contact DFAT or visit their website www.smarttraveller.gov.au for current advice. You can also register your travel plans with DFAT so you're easily contactable in case of emergency. Destination International Holidays does not provide any medical advice.

8. CHECKING TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

We have exercised care in putting together the arrangements requested by you in regards to your travel and accommodation. It is important, and your responsibility, to check all of the documentation provided to you in relation to your proposed travel and accommodation to ensure that it fully meets with your requirements and to ensure that there have been no misunderstandings.

All documents must be issued in the exact name of the passport holder (for international travel) or personal identification. You may be denied carriage if the name varies.

- We strongly recommend that you contact your airline prior to any travel to ensure that the scheduled departure time has not changed.
- We strongly recommend that you familiarise yourself with current travel advisories/information from smarttraveller.gov.au before you travel.
- Payment of any excess baggage charges is the traveller's sole responsibility.
- Carry on baggage is subject to security rules on the carriage of various items. It is your responsibility to check with the relevant authorities.

Destination International Holidays shall use reasonable commercial endeavours to provide travel documentation 14 days prior to the first travel departure date.

Please note, for customers who require these documents earlier for Visa applications please notify Destination International Holidays in advance. Destination International Holidays is not responsible for your failure to obtain a visa in this or any circumstances, including if you are overseas. Only in exceptional circumstances will Destination International Holidays provide early release of flight itineraries prior to the supply of Travel Documentation.

9. LIABILITY & RESPONSIBILITY

9.1 Limitations of Liability

We arrange your holiday, which will be provided by Suppliers that we understand (having made reasonable inquiries) are reputable and operate in accordance with the required standards of their local authorities. The scope of our services and our obligation to you is strictly limited to the agent services. We do not operate the products and/or services that you may receive during travel, all of which are provided by Suppliers.

The travel documents and products and/or services are provided subject to the Suppliers' Terms, conditions and limitations (some of which may exclude or limit liability in respect of death, injury, delay, loss or damage to passenger's person and/or effects), which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement. To the maximum extent permitted by law and subject to the following, we accept no liability or responsibility in connection with Supplier terms, conditions or limitations and do not make or give any warranty or representation as to their content or standard. Any legal recourse you may have in respect of those travel products is against those Suppliers and not against Destination International Holidays.

Your legal rights in connection with the provision of travel products and services are against the specific Supplier and, except to the extent a problem is caused or contributed to by negligence on our part, are not against us. Specifically, if for any reason (excluding negligence on our part) any Supplier is unable to provide the travel arrangements that you have purchased, your rights are against that Supplier and not against Destination International Holidays. This includes (without limitation) where Travel Deals cannot be supplied or itinerary changes occur or any other loss or damage suffered by the customer due to delay, cancellation, or disruption in any manner caused by the laws, regulations, acts or failures to act, demands, orders, or interpositions of any government or any subdivision or agent thereof or other authorities, or by acts of God, strikes, severe weather, fire, flood, war, rebellion, terrorism, insurrection, sickness, quarantine, epidemics, pandemics, failure of equipment or machinery, theft, malevolent acts or any other cause(s) beyond our control (each a Force Majeure Event).

In some circumstances, wherever possible, we will use reasonable endeavours to arrange the supply of comparable travel products and services and itineraries. In the absence of our own negligence, we are not liable for any cancellations, diversions, substitution of equipment, variations, postponements, or any other acts, omissions or defaults by Suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to services, itineraries, accommodation or facilities.

Nothing in the Terms & Conditions is intended to limit, exclude or modify or purport to limit, exclude or modify the statutory implied guarantees/warranties that cannot be lawfully limited, excluded or modified as provided under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) including the statutory consumer guarantees under the Australian Consumer Law or similar laws in the State and Territories of Australia. If any warranties are implied by law that cannot be excluded, then to the maximum extent permitted by law our liability for breach of such warranties is limited to, at our option:

- (a) in the case of products:
 - (i) the replacement of the products or the supply of equivalent products; or

9.2 Responsibility

Destination International Holidays reserves the right to vary, withdraw or cancel any Travel Deals by written notice in the event they cannot be supplied or the itinerary is changed due to a Force Majeure Event or other events which are beyond our control. To the maximum extent permitted by law, except where caused or contributed to by negligence on our part, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any responsibility or liability in contract, tort or otherwise for any injury, illness, death, cost, loss, damage (including but not limited to loss or damage to persons, baggage and property), delay, diversion, substitution of equipment, variation, postponement, liabilities, expense or inconvenience arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with:

- (a) the acts, errors, omissions, default or negligence of Suppliers or other third parties including government authorities, airlines, coach, rail or cruise operators, land carriers, hoteliers or any other suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to or lack of availability of transport, services, accommodation or facilities; or
- (b) a Force Majeure Event.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility and shall not be held vicariously liable for the intentional or negligent acts of any persons not employed by us, including (without limitation) all Suppliers, nor for any intentional or negligent acts of our employees committed while off duty or outside the course and scope of their employment.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility for any criminal conduct by any Suppliers or third parties.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility or liability for any requirements, terms or conditions of any Supplier or other third parties who provide travel products or services in the course of your holiday. All bookings made by Destination International Holidays with Suppliers or other travel product or service providers on your behalf are subject to the requirements, terms and conditions of those persons which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement, particularly in relation to the applicable laws, policies and requirements of any government, governmental authority or employee including visa, entry, exit or transit requirements.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any liability or responsibility for your acts, omissions, defaults, conduct, state of health, condition or circumstances, or failure to comply with the terms, conditions and requirements of any Suppliers or other third party travel products or suppliers, or country or governmental authorities, or any of their officials, servants or agents.

If you decide that you do not wish to visit a country or part of a country you had intended to visit because of any law, condition or requirements of Suppliers or any country or governmental authority, official, servant or agent, or because of circumstances beyond our control (and including any Force Majeure Event), you are responsible for any costs, expenses, charges, fees, losses or damage incurred as a consequence and any cancellation or amendment fees.

In relation to any responsibility or liability which cannot be excluded by law or despite the limitations above, if Destination International Holidays is found liable for any loss, damage, cost, liability or expense which arises out of or in any way is connected with any of the occurrences described above, then to the maximum extent permitted by law Destination International Holiday's liability will in no event exceed, in the aggregate, the greater of:

- (a) the amounts you paid to Destination International Holidays in connection with the travel products or services; or
- (b) AU$100.00

10. COMPLAINTS

We are committed to addressing complaints quickly and effectively. If a problem occurs whilst you are travelling you must attempt to find a resolution locally with the relevant Supplier within 24 hours.
