5 Days Ghan Darwin to Adelaide with Kakadu

About the holiday

The legendary Ghan travels through the Australia's Red Centre on an extraordinary outback journey.

Your adventure begins in Darwin, where a full day tour takes you to the wonders and amazing wetlands of Kakadu National Park. The park is listed as a World Heritage site by UNESCO, and covers more than 19,000 kilometres. Discover Aboriginal rock art that dates back over 50,000 years and look out for saltwater crocodiles and hundreds of bird species on a Yellow Water Billabong cruise.

Next stop is Alice Springs and you'll get there in style aboard the iconic Ghan in Gold Service. Twin cabins feature a lounge that converts to an upper and lower-berth beds and private ensuite. The highlight of your trip - aside from the top-tier accommodation - is the daily multi-course dining with all-inclusive Australian wine, beer and spirits. This once-in-a-lifetime gourmet experience invites you to feast on a regionally inspired menu featuring the likes of crocodile boudin blanc sausage, grilled saltwater barramundi and lemon myrtle cheesecake, all while discovering the beauty of Outback Australia.

Choose your preferred off-train excursion in Alice Springs and then it's time to return to the Ghan and enjoy stunning views of the Flinders Ranges as the train winds its way to Adelaide.

Itinerary

Please note, the itinerary will be in reverse for Adelaide to Darwin trips, with check-in to Frontier Hotel Darwin on Day 3 and Kakadu National Park Tour on Day 4.

Day 1: Darwin, Northern Territory

Welcome to Darwin, the gateway to the Northern Territory's Red Centre. Surrounded on all sides by a seemingly unending sweep of natural beauty, Darwin conjures images of ancient Indigenous art gracing the walls of Katherine Gorge, the magnificent Termite Mounds of Litchfield National Park and sacred Aboriginal land in the UNESCO World Heritage-listed Kakadu National Park. But this little city is also a thriving cosmopolitan centre — albeit with a treasure trove of natural riches and balmy tropical weather. On arrival, make your own way to the Frontier Hotel Darwin

Accommodation: Frontier Hotel Darwin

Day 2: Darwin – 1 day Kakadu National Park Tour

This 1 Day Kakadu Tour from Darwin is one of the best day tours in Australia. We leave early in the morning to get a head start on the day. We start off on Stuart Highway which is one of the longest roads in the country. Here you will be able to view the incredible terrain of the area and its uniqueness to this location in Australia. Next up we arrive in Kakadu National Park. The park is listed as a World Heritage site by UNESCO, and covers more than 19,000 kilometres. You will be amazed at the variety of landscapes on offer in the park from coastal areas, to forests, open woodland, lowland hills and expansive flood plains. As you explore the land of Kakadu, discover the diverse population of animals both on land and in the water.

Kakadu is home to hundreds of species of birds, many plants and other animals. You will also witness history in the form of rock art, created by the Aboriginal community dating back to 50,000 years ago. The Nourlangie Rock Art site will leave you in awe. This site has been a shelter for the indigenous community for thousands of years. Throughout the ages, the rock had been used as a place for Aboriginals to illustrate their culture. We get the chance to see this up close when you take the 1.5 kilometre walk around the base of the rock site. Your guide will lead you around the area giving you in depth information and stories about the different rock art paintings.

After our buffet lunch, join a local guide on the Yellow Water Billabong to cruise around looking for saltwater crocodiles. Have your camera ready in case you spot a croc or two. The chances are high as there are more than a thousand crocs living in these waters! Next on the tour is a trip to the Warradjan Aboriginal Cultural Centre. Here you will be able to visit with the Bininj People, the traditional locals of the park, as they welcome and introduce you to their lives in Kakadu National Park.

Accommodation: Frontier Hotel Darwin

Meals: Breakfast

Day 3: Darwin — The Ghan Embarkation — Katherine

This morning, after breakfast, please catch a taxi to the Darwin Railway Station to board The Ghan. On arrival, you will be shown to your incredible Gold Service cabin and escorted to the Queen Adelaide Restaurant, where you can settle in with a glass of fine Australian wine. Watch as the passing scenery transforms on your way into Katherine, replete with prehistoric-looking ferns and twisted mangroves that tumble down dramatic cliff faces. It's here you will enjoy your first Off Train Excursion. Upon entering Nitmiluk Gorge, you'll be enveloped in birdsong, the buzz of insects and tremendous nature within the 292,000 hectares of the Nitmiluk National Park. Experience its beauty up close with a guided cruise showcasing the incredible Indigenous rock paintings covering the walls of the gorge, before returning to The Ghan for your first multi-course dinner.

Accommodation: The Ghan

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner with all-inclusive onboard drinks

Day 4: Alice Springs

Today, stop in Alice Springs and experience the striking beauty of Simpsons Gap with an Off Train Excursion. The gateway to some of central Australia's most stirring landscapes and rugged landmarks, Alice Springs invites you to wander between the soaring canyon walls of Simpsons Gap, see the town attractions or get up close to some of the Red Centre's native wildlife, before returning to The Ghan.

Accommodation: The Ghan

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner with all-inclusive drinks

Day 5: Adelaide, South Australia — The Ghan Disembarkation

This morning you will be rewarded with stunning views from within the Queen Adelaide Restaurant as the landscape outside transforms from the rich, ochre tones of the outback into the sprawling lushness of the Flinders Ranges. Sip a glass of Australian sparkling wine with morning tea as you prepare to arrive in Adelaide, which will mark the end of Australia's greatest rail journey. On arrival in this city brimming with up-and-coming cafés, secret bars, award-winning restaurants, serene parklands and vibrant marketplaces, make your own way home or to the airport for your onward journey.

Meals: Breakfast and Morning Tea with all-inclusive drinks

Itinerary Options

Enjoy extended touring options at key destinations along the rail route. Guests will have the opportunity to choose only one option out of the multiple Off-Train Excursions listed. The hospitality staff aboard The Ghan will assist with booking your preferred tour option.

Please note: The day by day descriptions published are intended as an indicative guide only. Travel by nature is unpredictable. Weather patterns, road conditions, public holidays, travel restrictions and a multitude of other factors may necessitate itinerary changes that ultimately are for the client's benefit. It is essential that clients are flexible and open minded in this regard.

Fitness for Travel: You must be medically and physically fit for travel. Please inform your consultant at time of booking if you have any medical or physical condition that will or may require medical attention, medication or special treatment during your rail holiday. Great Southern Railways may require you to complete a health questionnaire.

Luggage: Checked-in luggage permits a maximum of 2 x 30 kg bags per person (2 items not exceeding 23 kg and 180 linear centimetres). Checked-in luggage may not be accessed during travel. One item of Cabin luggage is permitted per person but must not exceed 25 kg and be no larger than 50cm(L) x 30cm(H) x 30cm(W). Luggage must be checked in at the station 60 minutes prior to your scheduled departure. Guests should only take required hand luggage on board. Unchecked luggage is carried at owner's risk. Bags should be secured and display the owner's name, destination and contact details both inside and out.

DESTINATION INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAYS BOOKING CONDITIONS

Applies to all bookings from 20 August 2020

Please read this information prior to making your reservation

We request that you only make a booking if you agree with the following terms and conditions.

Our full set of terms and conditions are listed below, which we highly recommend you read prior to make your holiday reservations. This is the contract under which both parties enter. Immediately following is a summary in brief for our customers.

1. Upon making a reservation with Destination International Holidays you will receive a booking form, which needs to be filled out and signed to confirm that you agree to the below terms and conditions.
2. Your booking will then be confirmed to you in writing and you will be required to pay a 50% deposit.
 3. At this time, you must take out travel insurance for your holiday to protect you against any unforeseen circumstances.
4. 90 days prior to departure you will be asked to make the balance payment for your trip (you will be notified if your supplier requires earlier payment).
5. 14 days prior to departure you will be sent your travel documents via express post.

Destinations International Holidays operates a Client Trust bank account. This means that we do not hold onto your money. We pay the ultimate travel providers (Suppliers) of your travel services the funds for your holiday. The Suppliers include airlines, tour operators, cruise lines, transport companies, hotels etc. We are required to pay the Suppliers deposits and final payments to secure your booking and in some instances these items are non-refundable.

If you wish to cancel you must notify us of your cancellation in writing. We will then write to the Suppliers to cancel your booking and request a refund (if applicable) for any elements of your holiday that are refundable. You will need to make an insurance claim for any travel arrangements that are non-refundable. If you have any issues during the refund or cancellation process, you have 30 days to contact our office in writing to lodge a complaint so an immediate resolution can be found for you.

1. AGREEMENT

This agreement is between you and Destination International Holidays Pty Ltd - ABN 38 154 788 155 (DI Travel, us/we/our). Customer, passenger, you or your, references the person who books or pays for travel services and includes all persons intending to travel. By booking any travel service with us, you have agreed to be bound by these terms and conditions.

2. ROLE OF DESTINATION INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAYS

Destination International Holidays sells various products and/or services on behalf of our third party suppliers and travel providers, including (without limitation) airlines, coaches, rail and transport operators, accommodation, tour operators, tour guides or the providers of any other product or service, referred to throughout as 'Suppliers'.

Our services consist of booking and co-coordinating the products and/or services offered by the Suppliers. Destination International Holidays facilitates a direct contractual relationship between you, the customer, and each Supplier. You are responsible for reading the Suppliers' terms and conditions before paying for your booking or reservation.

Destination International Holidays does not guarantee the performance of the product/services offered by Suppliers and we will not be liable in the event that you suffer loss, injury or disappointment by reason of any acts or failings of any Supplier. In such case your remedy will lie against the Supplier.

The tour information which we supply to you is provided by the Suppliers. We accept no liability for any inaccuracies or misrepresentations contained in such material. We do our best to verify the information provided to us by suppliers, but we cannot guarantee its accuracy on all occasions. All photos and videos in our brochures and on our website are for representational purposes only.

In accordance with these booking conditions Destination International Holidays will perform our duties with reasonable attention, care and expertise. To avoid any doubt, these terms and conditions apply to communications and/or bookings made directly with our consultants, whether over the phone, by email, via social media/online chat, in-store, and online via our website.

Subject to the Australian Consumer Law, Destination International Holidays will not be liable for any loss or damage, injury, delay, inconvenience, or expense caused by a Supplier. Destination International Holidays will not be liable for events beyond its control or the control of the Suppliers including, without limitation, strikes, accidents, pandemics or outbreaks of infectious diseases, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances or force majeure (Acts of God).

3. PRICES & PAYMENT

All prices of our published travel deals are listed in Australian Dollars (AUD) unless stated otherwise. The published prices include all Australian taxes, charges and service fees, including GST (where applicable). All prices are subject to availability and can be withdrawn or varied without notice.

A deposit is required to confirm your booking (amount varies depending on package booked). Receipt of deposit will be taken as an understanding by Destination International Holidays that the customer has checked their confirmed travel arrangements and has read and agreed to the terms and conditions.

Balance payment is required 90 days prior to departure and you will be notified if suppliers requirement earlier payment.

Cruise bookings will require the balance payment to made 120 days prior to departure. Typically, all payments are non-refundable.

Failure to pay by the date advised by Destination International Holidays may result in your bookings being cancelled.

Destination International Holidays accepts payment via bank transfer or credit card. Additional surcharge will be added to payments made by credit card. Please check with us for current charges. When your credit card is processed by Destination International Holidays you agree to not have your payment 'charged back' or reversed by your credit card provider where the services have been provided. If paying by bank transfer, please note that your order is not secured until the funds clear into our account.

Some additional extras, supplements, and/or surcharges may be payable after making a booking, as advised by your travel consultant. The price payable is also subject to a number of other factors including any customisations and additions made by you, changes to travel arrangements, currency fluctuations, fuel surcharges, government taxes, levies and airfare increases. We reserve the right to adjust any fees, charges or prices as necessary to reflect a material cost increase. Once full payment has been received by Destination International no surcharges in respect to currency fluctuations will be applied.

We reserve the right not to honour any published prices that we determine were erroneous due to printing, clerical or electronic error, except in the case of manifest error by us. In the event of a price decrease, we are not obliged to refund you to match any subsequent price reduction after booking confirmation.

Travel deals are typically promoted as a base 'per person' price calculated on twin share (i.e. 2 people sharing a room).

All other mandatory surcharges including but not limited to solo traveller surcharges, departure date and/or city surcharges, the selection of additional optional extras, other government taxes, levies or gratuities are in addition to the listed base price as per the terms of the travel deal.

4. TRAVEL INSURANCE

You should take out comprehensive travel insurance immediately after making a booking, as Destination International Holidays has a strict Cancellation and Refund Policy. Purchasing a comprehensive policy can help to protect yourself and any other persons intending to travel from unforeseen circumstances or the inability to travel through your insurer's cancellation cover.

If you make a booking with Destination International Holidays and decline travel insurance, you may be required to sign a disclaimer.

Please note that some credit card providers will provide the card holder with travel insurance. Where you are paying for all or any part of the services arranged through us by credit card and you intend to use travel insurance supplied by the credit card provider you acknowledge that Destination International Holidays has offered you travel insurance and that you waive any claim against Destination International Holidays in respect of any loss or damage you may suffer as a result of you failing to take out any or adequate travel insurance.

Destination International Holidays has no responsibility for and excludes all liability in relation to your Insurance claims. Destination International Holidays recommends travel insurance (where available) against loss of deposits through cancellation charges, baggage loss, medical expenses, theft and the insolvency of Destination International Holidays or any of the Suppliers and including protection against a Force Majeure Event or for any other requirements specific to your travel plans.

Destination International Holidays makes no representations or guarantees concerning reimbursements of funds paid by you under any insurance claim. You agree not to hold Destination International Holidays responsible for any decision made by insurers, and/or by any Suppliers, or requirements of any overseas country or governmental authority or overseas laws and policies. Insurance providers are considered as a third-party, any contract is between you and the selected provider.

5. FEES, CHARGES & REFUNDS

5.1 Amendments & changes to bookings

If you wish to change a confirmed reservation or booking you are likely to incur fees. In some cases, it may not be possible to change a booking or to cancel, or it may be uneconomic for you to do so. You should always check the cost before requesting changes to your travel arrangements. Please read the terms and conditions of the Suppliers which apply to your travel arrangements.

Any amendment or deviation from advertised travel deals and/or quotes will incur a fee of $150 per person.

Should you need to alter your confirmed reservation, there will be an automatic fee charged of $150 per person per amendment or transaction. Additionally, there may be cancellation fees levied by the Supplier or fees may be applicable where arrangements have been pre-purchased. In addition, we charge:

- $50 per person for all airline seat reservations and baggage charges plus any airline fees.
- $100 per person for all Tourist visa processing plus the cost for the visa fee.
- $75 per person to reissue any travel documents lost in the mail.

- $100 per person to process travel insurance claims and provide a statement for your insurance company.
- $50 per person travel document printing fee

5.2 Cancellation fees

If you cancel a confirmed reservation or booking the Supplier is likely to charge you a cancellation fee. Further, some tickets may be non-refundable or non-transferable. It is important to check the position with us before you confirm arrangements and/or before you cancel any confirmed bookings. Please read the Supplier’s special conditions in relation to your travel arrangements.

All proposed cancellations must be communicated to Destination International Holidays in writing as soon as they become known, and must be validated and authorised by Destination International Holidays.

Destination International Holidays will charge a 15% cancellation fee on all refundable portions of a cancelled tour. You acknowledge that the Destination International Holidays service fee is fair remuneration for the work done by Destination International Holidays in arranging your travel arrangements.

Cancellation fees will be levied relative to the amount of notice given as follows:

Days Notice	90 or more	89-75	74-65	64-1
	Loss of Deposit and 50% loss of fare	75%	85%	100%

The above are Destination International Holidays cancellation fees. Airlines and Tour Operators may have additional fees. Transfer of a confirmed booking to another tour or departure date is deemed a cancellation of the original booking. There will be no refund for cancellation of unused services on or after commencement date. Please note that employees of any overseas suppliers are not authorised by Destination International Holidays to make any undertakings to our clients in respect of refunds or other matters.

5.3 Refunds

If your travel arrangements are cancelled for any reason (including force majeure) after you have paid, no refund will be available to you until Destination International Holidays receives the monies from the Supplier involved. In most cases, the Supplier will charge a cancellation fee and in some instance you may not be able to claim a refund.

Destination International Holidays is not responsible for any delays by a Supplier in processing a refund. You should be aware that airlines may take a significant time to process a refund.

Should the price of an airfare, cruise or tour be reduced after you have made payment your right to a refund (if any) is governed by the terms and conditions which apply to the airfare, cruise or tour as determined by Supplier.

Unless otherwise stated in your costings and itinerary document in addition to any fee charged by a Supplier, Destination International Holidays will charge you a fee to process a refund request. Destination International Holidays earns commissions and/or charges service fees in making your travel arrangements. Destination International Holidays reserves the right to retain the commissions and service fees that is earned on your booking from any refund should your booking be cancelled for any reason (including for force majeure).

Please contact Destination International Holidays on 1300 813 391 for further information with respect to cancellation queries or for full details please refer to our Cancellation and Refund Policy.

6. PASSPORT & VISA REQUIREMENTS

Prior to confirming your travel arrangements, you should check your passport and establish that it will remain current for the entire period of your travel.

It is the responsibility of each member of the travelling party to ensure that they have a valid passport and the necessary visa/s for the destination/s to be visited.

Destination International Holidays recommends all travellers prior to making a booking, understands the entry and exit rules of the destination(s) they are travelling to. To check, as an Australian Passport holder the destination's advice please go to <https://smartraveller.gov.au>

Certain countries require that your passport remains valid for a period of up to twelve months after the date upon which you are scheduled to leave such country. You may be denied entry to a country if your passport expires within 12 months. You should clarify visa requirements with the Embassies of the countries that you plan to visit as certain countries may require you to take out a visa dependant on whether you are travelling on an Australian or a foreign passport.

The authorities in some countries (including The USA) require holders of Australian passports to take out a visa for entry into their country where the traveller has been sentenced or imprisoned or been convicted of certain types of criminal offence. A visa may be required where a contagious disease or a serious health problem exists.

Re-entry visas will/may be required for travellers leaving Australia holding a foreign passport. If you hold a foreign passport then it is your responsibility to make your own enquiries and satisfy yourself as to the position in regard to your passport and/or visa requirements before leaving Australia.

If you do not obtain the correct visas, for whatever reason, you will be liable for any associated expenses, fees, penalties, costs, liabilities, damages or losses and are not entitled to a Destination International Holidays refund as this decision is outside of the control of Destination International Holidays.

7. HEALTH & VACCINATIONS

All customers must be well enough to travel (whether physical, medical or otherwise). It's your responsibility to ensure that you're aware of any specific health requirements for your travel destination(s) prior to making a booking and be responsible for ensuring that any applicable needs can be met during travels.

This includes understanding whether you are authorised to carry or use certain medications and or medical/mobility equipment (including batteries with respect to flights and cruises) and/or whether you are required to provide supporting medical documentation such as prescriptions or medical certificates.

For some countries, a failure to disclose a health condition, proof of vaccination or a medical certificate may result in the applicable country/airline/cruise refusing you entry/boarding, or in you being detained, expelled or repatriated from the applicable country at your cost.

If you have any concerns regarding health requirements of the travel destination(s), we suggest you refer to your health professional and/or the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) 'Smart Traveller' service prior to placing an order. We recommend that you contact DFAT or visit their website www.smarttraveller.gov.au for current advice. You can also register your travel plans with DFAT so you're easily contactable in case of emergency. Destination International Holidays does not provide any medical advice.

8. CHECKING TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

We have exercised care in putting together the arrangements requested by you in regards to your travel and accommodation. It is important, and your responsibility, to check all of the documentation provided to you in relation to your proposed travel and accommodation to ensure that it fully meets with your requirements and to ensure that there have been no misunderstandings.

All documents must be issued in the exact name of the passport holder (for international travel) or personal identification. You may be denied carriage if the name varies.

- We strongly recommend that you contact your airline prior to any travel to ensure that the scheduled departure time has not changed.
- We strongly recommend that you familiarise yourself with current travel advisories/information from smarttraveller.gov.au before you travel.
- Payment of any excess baggage charges is the traveller's sole responsibility.
- Carry on baggage is subject to security rules on the carriage of various items. It is your responsibility to check with the relevant authorities.

Destination International Holidays shall use reasonable commercial endeavours to provide travel documentation 14 days prior to the first travel departure date.

Please note, for customers who require these documents earlier for Visa applications please notify Destination International Holidays in advance. Destination International Holidays is not responsible for your failure to obtain a visa in this or any circumstances, including if you are overseas. Only in exceptional circumstances will Destination International Holidays provide early release of flight itineraries prior to the supply of Travel Documentation.

9. LIABILITY & RESPONSIBILITY

9.1 Limitations of Liability

We arrange your holiday, which will be provided by Suppliers that we understand (having made reasonable inquiries) are reputable and operate in accordance with the required standards of their local authorities. The scope of our services and our obligation to you is strictly limited to the agent services. We do not operate the products and/or services that you may receive during travel, all of which are provided by Suppliers.

The travel documents and products and/or services are provided subject to the Suppliers' Terms, conditions and limitations (some of which may exclude or limit liability in respect of death, injury, delay, loss or damage to passenger's person and/or effects), which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement. To the maximum extent permitted by law and subject to the following, we accept no liability or responsibility in connection with Supplier terms, conditions or limitations and do not make or give any warranty or representation as to their content or standard. Any legal recourse you may have in respect of those travel products is against those Suppliers and not against Destination International Holidays.

Your legal rights in connection with the provision of travel products and services are against the specific Supplier and, except to the extent a problem is caused or contributed to by negligence on our part, are not against us. Specifically, if for any reason (excluding negligence on our part) any Supplier is unable to provide the travel arrangements that you have purchased, your rights are against that Supplier and not against Destination International Holidays. This includes (without limitation) where Travel Deals cannot be supplied or itinerary changes occur or any other loss or damage suffered by the customer due to delay, cancellation, or disruption in any manner caused by the laws, regulations, acts or failures to act, demands, orders, or interpositions of any government or any subdivision or agent thereof or other authorities, or by acts of God, strikes, severe weather, fire, flood, war, rebellion, terrorism, insurrection, sickness, quarantine, epidemics, pandemics, failure of equipment or machinery, theft, malevolent acts or any other cause(s) beyond our control (each a Force Majeure Event).

In some circumstances, wherever possible, we will use reasonable endeavours to arrange the supply of comparable travel products and services and itineraries. In the absence of our own negligence, we are not liable for any cancellations, diversions, substitution of equipment, variations, postponements, or any other acts, omissions or defaults by Suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to services, itineraries, accommodation or facilities.

Nothing in the Terms & Conditions is intended to limit, exclude or modify or purport to limit, exclude or modify the statutory implied guarantees/warranties that cannot be lawfully limited, excluded or modified as provided under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) including the statutory consumer guarantees under the Australian Consumer Law or similar laws in the State and Territories of Australia.

If any warranties are implied by law that cannot be excluded, then to the maximum extent permitted by law our liability for breach of such warranties is limited to, at our option:

- (a) in the case of products:
 - (i) the replacement of the products or the supply of equivalent products; or
 - (ii) the payment of the cost of replacing the products or acquiring equivalent products; and
- (b) in the case of services:
 - (i) the supply of the services again; and

- (ii) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

9.2 Responsibility

Destination International Holidays reserves the right to vary, withdraw or cancel any Travel Deals by written notice in the event they cannot be supplied or the itinerary is changed due to a Force Majeure Event or other events which are beyond our control.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, except where caused or contributed to by negligence on our part, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any responsibility or liability in contract, tort or otherwise for any injury, illness, death, cost, loss, damage (including but not limited to loss or damage to persons, baggage and property), delay, diversion, substitution of equipment, variation, postponement, liabilities, expense or inconvenience arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with:

- (a) the acts, errors, omissions, default or negligence of Suppliers or other third parties including government authorities, airlines, coach, rail or cruise operators, land carriers, hoteliers or any other suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to or lack of availability of transport, services, accommodation or facilities; or
- (b) a Force Majeure Event.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility and shall not be held vicariously liable for the intentional or negligent acts of any persons not employed by us, including (without limitation) all Suppliers, nor for any intentional or negligent acts of our employees committed while off duty or outside the course and scope of their employment. Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility for any criminal conduct by any Suppliers or third parties.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility or liability for any requirements, terms or conditions of any Supplier or other third parties who provide travel products or services in the course of your holiday. All bookings made by Destination International Holidays with Suppliers or other travel product or service providers on your behalf are subject to the requirements, terms and conditions of those persons which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement, particularly in relation to the applicable laws, policies and requirements of any government, governmental authority or employee including visa, entry, exit or transit requirements.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any liability or responsibility for your acts, omissions, defaults, conduct, state of health, condition or circumstances, or failure to comply with the terms, conditions and requirements of any Suppliers or other third party travel products or suppliers, or country or governmental authorities, or any of their officials, servants or agents.

If you decide that you do not wish to visit a country or part of a country you had intended to visit because of any law, condition or requirements of Suppliers or any country or governmental authority, official, servant or agent, or because of circumstances beyond our control (and including any Force Majeure Event), you are responsible for any costs, expenses, charges, fees, losses or damage incurred as a consequence and any cancellation or amendment fees.

In relation to any responsibility or liability which cannot be excluded by law or despite the limitations above, if Destination International Holidays is found liable for any loss, damage, cost, liability or expense which arises out of or in any way is connected with any of the occurrences described above, then to the maximum extent permitted by law Destination International Holiday's liability will in no event exceed, in the aggregate, the greater of:

- (a) the amounts you paid to Destination International Holidays in connection with the travel products or services; or
