Darwin travel tips

- Darwin is famous for offering warm winters, spectacular sunsets and outdoor markets
- Essential spots to visit in the city: Defence of Darwin Experience, Crocosaurus Cove, Darwin Botanic Gardens
- Top destinations for day tours/short trips: Kakadu National Park, Litchfield National Park, Katherine Gorge

If you're looking for things to do in Darwin in winter itself, the city is fairly active as many of the locals are out and about. Markets are great places to try tasty local food or pick up a hand-crafted bargain. Perhaps the most famous market is the Mindil Beach Market which operates alongside the dry season (late April to October) and serves as an amazing place to take in the famous Darwin sunset.

In terms of the best things to do outside Darwin, after taking a day or two to explore the city itself, many visitors turn their eyes towards two of the incredible drawcards of the region: Kakadu and Litchfield National Parks. Both of these World Heritage-protected, nature-rich gems have something individual to offer, with Litchfield being located slightly closer yet being slightly less iconic than Kakadu.

While the dry season is a safe bet for travelling, the months within the wet seasons shouldn't be completely dismissed. With a number of attractive attributes such as flowing waterfalls, lush greenery, some of the most spectacular lightning storms in the country and incredible barramundi fishing, Darwin and its surrounding regions truly come to life with rainfall.

Kakadu is reached in just over 2.5 hours' drive from the Darwin city centre, and has more than earned its reputation as one of the must-visit destinations in Australia.

In the vast national park you can see clear tropical rivers, rich wetlands, towering sandstone plateaus and everything in between during your visit to Kakadu. Most of your adventures in Kakadu will focus on some kind of balance between flora and fauna. The park is a location bristling with photo opportunities from all angles and crocodiles, in particular, tend to be far more visible during the winter as they attempt to warm themselves up in the sun.

If you want to see crocs, various cruises are available that will take you down the popular Yellow Water Wetlands where you'll come across a large number of crocs in their natural habitats; the sheer size of some of them may surprise you! You will want to ensure that you pay a visit to the two iconic waterfalls of the Kakadu region, Jim Jim Falls and Twin Falls. The cliff faces, which form a sheer rock wall that rises up to 150m in its tallest locations are spectacular regardless of how freely the water is flowing.

Litchfield, meanwhile, might not get as much attention as Kakadu, however, that doesn't make it any less of a sound choice as a sightseeing destination. Located substantially closer to Darwin than Kakadu you can expect to reach the park within an 1 hour and 45 minutes from the city centre. Once you've arrived you'll be able to easily navigate your way around as it is a lot smaller than the rivalling Kakadu National Park.

6. PASSPORT & VISA REQUIREMENTS

Prior to confirming your travel arrangements, you should check your passport and establish that it will remain current for the entire period of your travel.

It is the responsibility of each member of the travelling party to ensure that they have a valid passport and the necessary visa/s for the destination/s to be visited.

Destination International Holidays recommends all travellers prior to making a booking, understands the entry and exit rules of the destination(s) they are travelling to. To check, as an Australian Passport holder the destination's advice please go to <https://smartraveller.gov.au>

Certain countries require that your passport remains valid for a period of up to twelve months after the date upon which you are scheduled to leave such country. You may be denied entry to a country if your passport expires within 12 months. You should clarify visa requirements with the Embassies of the countries that you plan to visit as certain countries may require you to take out a visa dependant on whether you are travelling on an Australian or a foreign passport.

The authorities in some countries (including The USA) require holders of Australian passports to take out a visa for entry into their country where the traveller has been sentenced or imprisoned or been convicted of certain types of criminal offence. A visa may be required where a contagious disease or a serious health problem exists.

Re-entry visas will/may be required for travellers leaving Australia holding a foreign passport. If you hold a foreign passport then it is your responsibility to make your own enquiries and satisfy yourself as to the position in regard to your passport and/or visa requirements before leaving Australia.

If you do not obtain the correct visas, for whatever reason, you will be liable for any associated expenses, fees, penalties, costs, liabilities, damages or losses and are not entitled to a Destination International Holidays refund as this decision is outside of the control of Destination International Holidays.

7. HEALTH & VACCINATIONS

All customers must be well enough to travel (whether physical, medical or otherwise). It's your responsibility to ensure that you're aware of any specific health requirements for your travel destination(s) prior to making a booking and be responsible for ensuring that any applicable needs can be met during travels.

This includes understanding whether you are authorised to carry or use certain medications and or medical/mobility equipment (including batteries with respect to flights and cruises) and/or whether you are required to provide supporting medical documentation such as prescriptions or medical certificates.

For some countries, a failure to disclose a health condition, proof of vaccination or a medical certificate may result in the applicable country/airline/cruise refusing you entry/boarding, or in you being detained, expelled or repatriated from the applicable country at your cost.

If you have any concerns regarding health requirements of the travel destination(s), we suggest you refer to your health professional and/or the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) 'Smart Traveller' service prior to placing an order. We recommend that you contact DFAT or visit their website www.smartraveller.gov.au for current advice. You can also register your travel plans with DFAT so you're easily contactable in case of emergency. Destination International Holidays does not provide any medical advice.

All documents must be issued in the exact name of the passport holder (for international travel) or personal identification. You may be denied carriage if the name varies.

- We strongly recommend that you contact your airline prior to any travel to ensure that the scheduled departure time has not changed.
- We strongly recommend that you familiarise yourself with current travel advisories/information from smartraveller.gov.au before you travel.
- Payment of any excess baggage charges is the traveller's sole responsibility.

The scope of our services and our obligation to you is strictly limited to the agent services. We do not operate the products and/or services that you may receive during travel, all of which are provided by Suppliers.

The travel documents and products and/or services are provided subject to the Suppliers' Terms, conditions and limitations (some of which may exclude or limit liability in respect of death, injury, delay, loss or damage to passenger's person and/or effects), which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement. To the maximum extent permitted by law and subject to the following, we accept no liability or responsibility in connection with Supplier terms, conditions or limitations and do not make or give any warranty or representation as to their content or standard. Any legal recourse you may have in respect of those travel products is against those Suppliers and not against Destination International Holidays.

Your legal rights in connection with the provision of travel products and services are against the specific Supplier and, except to the extent a problem is caused or contributed to by negligence on our part, are not against us. Specifically, if for any reason (excluding negligence on our part) any Supplier is unable to provide the travel arrangements that you have purchased, your rights are against that Supplier and not against Destination International Holidays. This includes (without limitation) where Travel Deals cannot be supplied or itinerary changes occur or any other loss or damage suffered by the customer due to delay, cancellation, or disruption in any manner caused by the laws, regulations, acts or failures to act, demands, orders, or interpositions of any government or any subdivision or agent thereof or other authorities, or by acts of God, strikes, severe weather, fire, flood, war, rebellion, terrorism, insurrection, sickness, quarantine, epidemics, pandemics, failure of equipment or machinery, theft, malevolent acts or any other cause(s) beyond our control (each a Force Majeure Event).

In some circumstances, wherever possible, we will use reasonable endeavours to arrange the supply of comparable travel products and services and itineraries. In the absence of our own negligence, we are not liable for any cancellations, diversions, substitution of equipment, variations, postponements, or any other acts, omissions or defaults by Suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to services, itineraries, accommodation or facilities.

Nothing in the Terms & Conditions is intended to limit, exclude or modify or purport to limit, exclude or modify the statutory implied guarantees/warranties that cannot be lawfully limited, excluded or modified as provided under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) including the statutory consumer guarantees under the Australian Consumer Law or similar laws in the State and Territories of Australia.

If any warranties are implied by law that cannot be excluded, then to the maximum extent permitted by law our liability for breach of such warranties is limited to, at our option:

- (a) in the case of products:
 - (i) the replacement of the products or the supply of equivalent products; or
 - (ii) the payment of the cost of replacing the products or acquiring equivalent products; and
- (b) in the case of services:
 - (i) the supply of the services again; and
 - (ii) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.

9.2 Responsibility

- (a) the acts, errors, omissions, default or negligence of Suppliers or other third parties including government authorities, airlines, coach, rail or cruise operators, land carriers, hoteliers or any other suppliers, nor for any consequences thereof, including but not limited to changes to or lack of availability of transport, services, accommodation or facilities; or
- (b) a Force Majeure Event.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility for any criminal conduct by any Suppliers or third parties.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility or liability for any requirements, terms or conditions of any Supplier or other third parties who provide travel products or services in the course of your holiday. All bookings made by Destination International Holidays with Suppliers or other travel product or service providers on your behalf are subject to the requirements, terms and conditions of those persons which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement, particularly in relation to the applicable laws, policies and requirements of any government, governmental authority or employee including visa, entry, exit or transit requirements.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any liability or responsibility for your acts, omissions, defaults, conduct, state of health, condition or circumstances, or failure to comply with the terms, conditions and requirements of any Suppliers or other third party travel products or suppliers, or country or governmental authorities, or any of their officials, servants or agents.

If you decide that you do not wish to visit a country or part of a country you had intended to visit because of any law, condition or requirements of Suppliers or any country or governmental authority, official, servant or agent, or because of circumstances beyond our control (and including any Force Majeure Event), you are responsible for any costs, expenses, charges, fees, losses or damage incurred as a consequence and any cancellation or amendment fees.

In relation to any responsibility or liability which cannot be excluded by law or despite the limitations above, if Destination International Holidays is found liable for any loss, damage, cost, liability or expense which arises out of or in any way is connected with any of the occurrences described above, then to the maximum extent permitted by law Destination International Holiday's liability will in no event exceed, in the aggregate, the greater of:
