DESTINATION INTERNATIONAL HOLIDAYS BOOKING CONDITIONS

Applies to all bookings from 20 August 2020

Please read this information prior to making your reservation

We request that you only make a booking if you agree with the following terms and conditions.

Our full set of terms and conditions are listed below, which we highly recommend you read prior to make your holiday reservations. This is the contract under which both parties enter. Immediately following is a summary in brief for our customers.

1. Upon making a reservation with Destination International Holidays you will receive a booking form, which needs to be filled out and signed to confirm that you agree to the below terms and conditions.
2. Your booking will then be confirmed to you in writing and you will be required to pay a 50% deposit.
3. At this time, you must take out travel insurance for your holiday to protect you against any unforeseen circumstances.
4. 90 days prior to departure you will be asked to make the balance payment for your trip (you will be notified if your supplier requires earlier payment).
5. 14 days prior to departure you will be sent your travel documents via express post.

Destinations International Holidays operates a Client Trust bank account. This means that we do not hold onto your money. We pay the ultimate travel providers (Suppliers) of your travel services the funds for your holiday. The Suppliers include airlines, tour operators, cruise lines, transport companies, hotels etc. We are required to pay the Suppliers deposits and final payments to secure your booking and in some instances these items are non-refundable.

If you wish to cancel you must notify us of your cancellation in writing. We will then write to the Suppliers to cancel your booking and request a refund (if applicable) for any elements of your holiday that are refundable. You will need to make an insurance claim for any travel arrangements that are non-refundable. If you have any issues during the refund or cancellation process, you have 30 days to contact our office in writing to lodge a complaint so an immediate resolution can be found for you.

RESERVATION CHANGES – APPLIES TO BOOKINGS FROM 31 MARCH 2021 TO 30 SEPTEMBER 2021

We are looking forward to assisting with your travel arrangements in 2021.

As you may be aware, from time to time our Australian state borders and regions do open and close on the advice of health departments due to COVID-19 virus outbreaks.

We understand it can be very distressing having holiday plans change at short notice. In these cases, we will do everything possible to alter your travel arrangements at the very least expense to you. In keeping with this, our office will lower our usual $150 per person change fee and for a service fee of only $50 per person will rebook and change any reservations to future dates.

This reduced fee, up to a maximum of $150 per booking, goes towards the staff time and office expenses to rebook your holiday. It also guarantees that you will be looked after with care and attention, so that when it's safe to do so, you will be able to travel with confidence.

We appreciate that the change of date is through no fault of your own and that's why we have reduced our service fee. We thank you for your understanding regarding this matter.

Destination International Holidays recommends all travellers prior to making a booking, understands the entry and exit rules of the destination(s) they are travelling to. To check, as an Australian Passport holder the destination's advice please go to <https://smartraveller.gov.au>

Certain countries require that your passport remains valid for a period of up to twelve months after the date upon which you are scheduled to leave such country. You should clarify visa requirements with the Embassies of the countries that you plan to visit as certain countries may require you to take out a visa dependant on whether you are travelling on an Australian or a foreign passport.

The authorities in some countries (including The USA) require holders of Australian passports to take out a visa for entry into their country where the traveller has been sentenced or imprisoned or been convicted of certain types of criminal offence. A visa may be required where a contagious disease or a serious health problem exists.

Re-entry visas will/may be required for travellers leaving Australia holding a foreign passport. If you hold a foreign passport then it is your responsibility to make your own enquiries and satisfy yourself as to the position in regard to your passport and/or visa requirements before leaving Australia.

If you do not obtain the correct visas, for whatever reason, you will be liable for any associated expenses, fees, penalties, costs, liabilities, damages or losses and are not entitled to a Destination International Holidays refund as this decision is outside of the control of Destination International Holidays.

This includes understanding whether you are authorised to carry or use certain medications and or medical/mobility equipment (including batteries with respect to flights and cruises) and/or whether you are required to provide supporting medical documentation such as prescriptions or medical certificates.

For some countries, a failure to disclose a health condition, proof of vaccination or a medical certificate may result in the applicable country/airline/cruise refusing you entry/boarding, or in you being detained, expelled or repatriated from the applicable country at your cost.

If you have any concerns regarding health requirements of the travel destination(s), we suggest you refer to your health professional and/or the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) 'Smart Traveller' service prior to placing an order. Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility for any criminal conduct by any Suppliers or third parties.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept responsibility or liability for any requirements, terms or conditions of any Supplier or other third parties who provide travel products or services in the course of your holiday. All bookings made by Destination International Holidays with Suppliers or other travel product or service providers on your behalf are subject to the requirements, terms and conditions of those persons which may not be expressly the subject of our contractual agreement, particularly in relation to the applicable laws, policies and requirements of any government, governmental authority or employee including visa, entry, exit or transit requirements.

Destination International Holidays is not and does not accept any liability or responsibility for your acts, omissions, defaults, conduct, state of health, condition or circumstances, or failure to comply with the terms, conditions and requirements of any Suppliers or other third party travel products or suppliers, or country or governmental authorities, or any of their officials, servants or agents.

If you decide that you do not wish to visit a country or part of a country you had intended to visit because of any law, condition or requirements of Suppliers or any country or governmental authority, official, servant or agent, or because of circumstances beyond our control (and including any Force Majeure Event), you are responsible for any costs, expenses, charges, fees, losses or damage incurred as a consequence and any cancellation or amendment fees.
